CUTS WOMAN'S THROAT

SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 21.—CHARLES J. REED ENTERED THE HOME OF MRS. SADIE BROWN AT 518 MONTRIE AVENUE LAST NIGHT, GRABBED HER BY THE HAIR, CUT HER THROAT IN AN ATTEMPT TO KILL HER, AND WOULD HAVE SUCCEEDED HAD NOT FOUR NEIGHBORS, IN RESPONSE TO THE CRY OF THE ASSAULTED WOMAN, COME TO HER RESCUE. MRS. BROWN WAS TAKEN TO THE RECEIVING HOSPITAL TO HAVE THE WOUND ATTENDED TO, AND IT IS NOT YET KNOWN WHETHER SHE WILL SURVIVE THE ATTACK. JEALOUSY IS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN THE CAUSE OF REED'S ATTACK.

DOWN WITH "FRATS" IN THE HIGH SCHOOL

Influence Is Baneful Say Oakland Teachers.

That high school fraternities are foolish, comical, unsocial and have a baneful influence on students, as adjudged by the committee of secondary schools at Chicago last Friday is concurred in by the leading school officials of Oakland, including Assistant Superintendent of Schools R. B. S. York and Principal Pond of the Oakland High school. The former declares "frats" to be "rot," and the latter describes the organization as baneful and unnecessary. These opinions were vouchsafed by the officials when they were shown the dispatch from Chicago by a TRIBUNE reporter.

The dispatch says that Principal Spencer A. Smith, of the Wendell Phillips High school, of Chicago, read an address, "the results of most thorough study," in which he asserted the "frats" were not only a nuisance, but "degenerating." The educators, including superintendents and principals of Illinois schools adopted the speaker's views unanimously.

Commenting on the decision of the Chicago pedagogues, Principal Pond, of the Oakland High school, said:

NO USE FOR FRATS.

"The Chicago teachers are right. It would be better if there were no high school fraternal organizations. When my own children attend high school I will not permit them to join a 'frat.'

"Cliques cannot be suppressed entirely; they are bound to exist. But 'sub rosa' organizations are more liable to prove harmful than a 'frat,' the membership of which is unknown.

"In the Oakland High school the 'frats' are not permitted to hold meetings in the building, and practically the societies are unrecognized as official organizations of the school."

Questioned as to his opinion whether the "frats" were helpful or baneful, the educator said:

"They may be helpful in a way, and they certainly are baneful frequently.

"The center of the whole trouble is that any association or fraternal organization that widens the breach that may exist between exclusive sets and others is not ideally American.

"One of the greatest evils brought about by the 'frats' is that they widen the breach between the members of the organization and those who desire to become members, but who through one reason or other are debarred.

FREE OF "FRATS."

"So far as the Oakland High School is concerned the institution is free of 'frats.' This is evidenced by the annual Aegis election. Three years ago the editors, managers and other officials of the publication were chosen from 'frats' or 'non-frats,' the only two parties in the field presenting candidates. This year the parties are known as 'reform' and 'non-partisan,' entirely eliminating the old-time 'frat' and 'non-frat' spirit.

"This condition, I believe, was brought about by my suggestion to the students that fights were bad and developed class spirit.

"In response to this suggestion the students got together with the result that the old parties, 'frats' and 'non-frats,' died to make room for better and more harmonious conditions. Now the officials for the Aegis will be selected from the best students, irrespective of their membership of a school fraternity."

Informed of Principal Pond's opinion and his terse way of expressing it, Assistant Superintendent York said:

"That is the expression of the views of a man who knows, and I concur with him in every respect. 'Frats' are all right for colleges and universities, but harmful to the students of high schools, who join them.

STUDENTS HAVE NO TIME.

"In the first place, students of secondary schools have not time to devote days and evenings to organizations, and at the same time give proper attention to their studies.

"'Frats are strife breeders, too. Not long ago attention was brought to the Board of Education that trouble between the 'frats' and non-members was so keen at the High School that the 'non-frats' were not permitted by the 'frats' to enter or leave the High School by a certain door. Complaints were made by parents and friends of the 'non-frats.' The board found the complaints to be well based and took steps to prevent a continuation of the strife.

SINGER ILL; WOMAN ELUDES POLICE

Caruso's Prosecution for Annoyance Is Blocked.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Thorough preparations were made by the police department and counsel representing Enrico Caruso, the famous tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company, for a hearing in police court this afternoon of the charge that Caruso annoyed a woman in the monkey house at Central Park one day last week.

Notwithstanding what appeared to be an earnest search for the woman whom Caruso is alleged to have annoyed, representatives of both the police and the defense declared before the hour set for the hearing today that they had been unable to find her. When her complaint caused the arrest of the singer, she was taken to the police station along with the prisoner, and gave her name as Mrs. Hannah K. Graham, of the Bronx borough. She was told to appear at the hearing on the next day and allowed to go. When the case came up in court, neither Mrs. Graham nor Caruso appeared, the tenor sending a physician's certificate that he was too ill to come.

In the absence of the witness, Detective Cain, who arrested Caruso, is prepared to go on with the case and act as complainant, declaring that he witnessed the annoyance of which Mrs. Graham complained.

Director Conreid of the Metropolitan Opera House, has loyally defended Caruso from the charge, and the singer himself asserts that he was a victim of extraordinary circumstances of an attempt to make a false case against him for some ulterior purpose. There have been many arrests in the Central Park monkey house on charges similar to that on which Caruso is held. Some of the offenders have escaped with a fine, but in other cases a jail penalty has been imposed.

Police Captain Stephenson, of the Central Park station, said today that he was informed last night by a prominent business man who knows Mrs. Graham that she "would not appear in court for anything, as she does not want to be snapshotted and have her

CHAMPAGNE COMES TO AID OF JURY

Who Told, Did You? Is Question of Sports.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Abraham Ruef did not appear in Judge Dunne's court today to answer to the indictments charging him with extorting money from the French restaurants of this city.

Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz was also absent when the cases against him were called, it being announced that he was still on the high seas. The rumor that the cases were to be called had the effect of bringing a large number of spectators to the courtroom.

Attorney Henry Ach appeared on behalf of the accused men, and asked that the cases be continued for arraignment until December 3. Judge Dunne gave his assent to the postponement.

At no time during the proceedings was the name of Mr. Ruef uttered. When the case of Mayor Schmitz was called it was well known that he had not returned to the city from his European trip, but the crowd in the courtroom looked for Ruef to put in an appearance.

Whether Schmitz and Ruef, who are jointly charged in the indictments, will be tried together, has not been determined. Under the constitution they have the right to demand separate trials, but if they so elect they may face the same jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Vehemently, and with a certainty that bespoke profound knowledge of the affairs of the "Fight Trust," the grand jury haled contest promoter James W. Coffroth before it yesterday and propounded questions which were responsible for the pale face and nervousness of the promoter as he left the jury room. Surrounded almost immediately by many who are awaiting the summons of the jury, the sport leader retained his palor and nervousness. It was not necessary for him to speak. His appearance was sufficient to convince the expectant ones that the grand jury had delved far deeper into the graft mire than they had suspected.

Associated particularly with the "Fight Trust," and in conjunction with Eddie Graney, a shareholder in the Belvedere music hall, as Coffroth departed even his stride seemed to throw out to the onlookers that the downcast promoter was questioning himself: "If they know so much of the 'Fight Trust,' what must they know of the poor old Belvedere?"

Coffroth and Eddie Graney were the only two examined yesterday by the jury in connection with their investigation of the graft participated in by the trust and city officials.

That one on the inside, probably one of the main quartet comprising the managers of the Associated Athletic Clubs, had voluntarily "squealed" to the jury, or succumbed to the wiles of Special Agent Burns, was the rumor about the city last night.

DR. DERRICK LOSES SUIT

Mother of Physician is Given Judgment for $3195 by Judge Ellsworth.

Mrs. Anna J. Gilson was given judgment by Judge Ellsworth yesterday in the sum of $3195 in her suit against her son, Dr. George H. Derrick, a prominent Oakland physician.

Judge Ellsworth also decided that the presumption of law, that, whehe members of the same family live together in a house without any specific agreement as to charges having been entered into, there shall be no charge, applied to this case, and so disallowed Dr. Derrick's claim against his mother for $1200 charged her for board and lodging.

Dr. Derrick was appointed guardian of his mother in May, 1902, at Reno, Nev. Next year Mrs. Gilson was restored to competency, and demanded an accounting, finally bringing suit in the Superior Court of this county. The amount involved was $5825.75, but Dr. Derrick set up counter claims, alleging that he owed his mother no more than $1503.28, with interest. Included in his counter claims were the charges for board and lodging for times Mrs. Gilson had stayed with him in Oakland, and it was the cutting out of these that chiefly swelled the judgment against the defendant. The plaintiff offered in evidence letters in which the physician had invited his mother to come and live with him as long as she chose.

Dr. Derrick was allowed $600 by the Nevada courts for the board and lodging that he gave his mother during the period of her incompetency, and he contended that the charges he later made were as legitimate as those. The court, however, decided that this charge was in recognition of the services of the physician in caring for his mother during incompetency and attending to the affairs of her estate rather than an out and out allowance for a board and lodging bill.

LIVELY TIME IS PROMISED

When the Telephone Ordinance Comes Up for Final Passage Tonight.

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—A lively time is promised when the telephone ordinance offering for sale a telephone franchise for fifty years comes up for final passage before the City Trustees this evening. The ordinance was passed to print Monday evening in the face of vigorous opposition on the part of the improvement clubs of the city. Since the meeting Monday night considerable criticism of the trustees for their action has been indulged in and the word has gone forth urging the citizens to attend the meeting tonight and protest against the passage of the ordinance.

The surprise of the Monday night meeting was the reversal of the votes of trustees Schad and Favor. Favor first proposed the twenty-five year limit to the franchise. The ordinance was originally passed providing for a thirty-five year limit and allowing the trustees to fix the rates. At Monday night's meeting Favor and Schad reversed their votes on this point and the Home people were given every concession they asked. Ferrier and Hoff, who stood out for a restricted franchise were surprised and angered, but their protests were ineffectual. They will make a strong effort tonight to prevent the final passage of the ordinance.

PRESIDENT HILL ON THE STAND

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 21.—James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway, took the stand today when the Interstate Commerce Commission began its inquiry in Minneapolis into the relations between the railroad companies and the grain companies in the Northwest. The hearing is held pursuant to the La Follette resolution adopted by Congress at its last session.

Commissioners Charles A. Prouty and Franklin K. Lane personally conducted the hearing although several attorneys of different grain interests participated in the questioning.

Mr. Hill proved to be a willing witness. His answers to all questions were given without hesitation and in detail. He told of the tremendous grain traffic on his road, equalling each year twice as much as the grain hauled into Chicago in a year by all roads running into that city. He said that the Great Northern in 1889 hauled 2,870,000 bushels, while in 1896 this had increased to probably 115,000,000 bushels.

In view of the fact that the bulk of the Great Northern business comes from the farmer, he said it has always been its policy to aid the farmer whenever possible.

"It is the policy of your road, Mr. Hill, to delay freight for any reason?" was one of the questions.

"No; it certainly is not," was the reply.

"If the connecting roads would move freight faster, we could do a great deal better. The fact that the traffic is sometimes congested on our line is simply the fault of the immense amount of business. Other lines are more open to criticism than the Great Northern. In Chicago a few days ago I took special pains to make inquiries about traffic and could not get a single line which would agree to move 200,000 tons of freight to New York before December. The Great Northern can right along handle all the business received from the east promptly. The congestion comes from traffic from the west."

THESPIANS ARE WATER-BOUND

Dramatic Conditions in Oregon and Washington—Hold Over Bills.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 21.—The dramatic conditions in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia have been demoralized by recent floods which have crippled the railroads. Managers of companies are suffering, and at least $50,000 has been lost by them during the past ten days. Every vaudeville house in this territory has been compelled to hold over last week's bill through inability to send the players over the circuits. Traveling dramatic companies have been compelled to cancel engagements in two States, and many have been separated from baggage and scenery, which they will not recover for several days.

RUTLEY'S RETURN.

Byron Rutley, the well-known local tailor, Mrs. Rutley and their children have returned from a two months' Eastern pleasure trip, which included a visit to Mr. Rutley's parents in Ontario, Canada, whom he had not seen for 18 years. He found his mother and father in excellent health on the same old homestead where Mr. Rutley spent his childhood days and it was with reluctance he left the scenes of his birth. Of all the places Mr. Rutley visited, however, he states none come up to California, especially regarding climatic conditions, hereabouts, and that he finds Oakland is extensively known and favorably spoken of throughout the country. He predicts a great future for this city. He personally spoke to many who intended to come to this city to permanently reside. During Mr. and Mrs. Rutley's absence they visited many of the principal points of interest east of the Rocky Mountains and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of their trip, all returning in splendid health.

'I'LL BE HOME AT CHRISTMAS'

Harry K. Thaw Tells His Wife That He Will Spend Holiday Under His Own Roof.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Harry K. Thaw had a long conference with lawyers Delmas, Gleason and Peabody yesterday in preparation for his trial, which is expected to begin on December 3. He was subjected to a searching examination by Mr. Delmas upon new phases of the defense, which have been developed by Detective O'Meara of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was in a cheerful mood after an interview with her husband at his cell door and said: "My husband can hardly wait for his trial day. The last thing he said to me was: 'I'll be home at Christmas.' I know he will be free by that time unless there is something to delay the trial."

Apropos of the clamor for old-age pensions at Washington, it has cropped out that there are 18,000 unpaid grocers' accounts against government clerks there.

It has been estimated that terrestial days are lengthening at the rate of about half a second a century.

WATCH MAKERS

Require Steady Nerves for Fine Work.

Sitting at a watch maker's bench day in and day out is stedious work, and if the workman suffers from headache, nervousness and indigestion, as he is liable to do from his sedentary occupation, he requires special food to put him right. A Seattle man writes:

"I am a watchmaker, and have sat pretty constantly at my bench for 15 years, and have suffered daily from indigestion and its many evil effects, such as headache, dizziness, nervousness, etc. I always had a weak stomach until I began to use Grape Nuts.

"I didn't seem able to find anything that would digest properly with me for breakfast or supper, and my four children inherited the weakness from me.

"Now, I place 4 teaspoonfuls of Grape Nuts in a dish, then set it in the oven. When good and hot I eat it with cream. This with some other food gives me a nice hot breakfast. For the children we give each one 3 teaspoonfuls with warm milk, which softens it and they like it better.

"We have practically the same for supper and are not troubled in sleep with an overloaded stomach. With this diet we keep our digestion in fine condition and our continual good health and fat rosy boys prove that we are on the right track.

"I have gained in weight and have found a food in Grape Nuts that has saved me lots of doctor's bills for the children, and has gained me a clear head, steady hand and good digestion for the past two years.

"One must have a steady nerve and feel well to work on fine watch work, and the use of Grape Nuts twice a day has kept me right up to the mark." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

FLOODS RAGE IN TENNESSEE

Rivers Running Rapidly at Chattanooga—Highest Reached in Five Years.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 21.—The Tennessee river at this point is rising rapidly and the danger line—thirty-three feet—will probably be reached in a few hours. This is the highest stage in five years.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 21.—The flood situation as regards the railroads was somewhat improved today in the case of one road—the Southern—which resumed its traffic into Memphis, thus relieving the Frisco of the burden of handling the Southern traffic. Conditions, however, as far as the Illinois Central and Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railroads are concerned, show no improvement.

The Nashville & Chattanooga road is entirely out of business, but hopes to resume before night.

The financial loss to the railroads during the past four days has been heavy, while business interests of Memphis have been much interfered with.

During the night rain fell in torrents and the precipitation continues this morning, although the downpour is not quite so heavy. Street car service is badly crippled.

LACE HOUSE PRESENTS NOVEL IDEA

The "A. B. C." of a Modern Store Illustrated.

Last night The Lace House ably presented a novel index of a modern department store in a large advertisement that has been commented upon most favorably throughout newspaper and commercial circles today. The alphabetical index to the various departments ranging from Alpha to Omega, depicting the lines of merchandise to be found in the individual department gave "shop news" that was very readable and full of information.

Glancing back seventeen years the Oakland woman would not perhaps be able to find sufficient departments represented in H. C. Capwell & Co.'s store to utilize all letters of the alphabet; but today it would require a Chinese alphabet to designate the exact number.

Modernized department stores are rapidly adopting such plans of segregating and designating departments, some displaying bulletin boards of entrance, and embossed glass signs overhead each department, showing the various letters of the alphabet to guide eager shoppers. This ingenious alphabetical advertisement reflects credit upon the advertising department, so ably managed for many years by Stuart W. Booth. THE TRIBUNE has watched the development of this modern department store with interest and assures its thousands of readers that "what is advertised is what is sold."

The message also stated that the president and party had a very good trip across from Panama.

HAVE WOMEN RIGHT TO WEAR TROUSERS?

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—The editor of the college daily takes a decided stand this morning in opposition to the "co-ed" jinks at Hearst hall, where the co-eds appear in bifurcated garments for their mutual amusement. He contrasts the attitude of the women with regard to trousers to that adopted by the male students as to skirts. The editorial follows:

"We have never witnessed a co-ed jinks in Hearst hall, but we understand they are rather unique performances. We have been informed that it is a custom for many of the women to attend these functions rigged up in male attire. Through the kindness of their male friends the co-eds are able to borrow all sorts of wearing apparel from the men, so the supply is never wanting. Military uniforms, corduroys, football suits, and in fact, all the clothes which the men wear, are worn by the co-eds with a great sense of pride. After the evening's gay performance, which generally includes the taking off of the part of the more unfortunate college men, the affair winds up with a serpentine, so we are told, and a high-pitched 'Oski.'

"The first question that entered our mind when we were informed of the character of these secret entertainments, was whether such actions were consistent with female modesty. It seems to us they are decidedly not. It is impossible to keep the fact that this sort of glee exists, within the four walls of Hearst hall and it is naturally an absorbing topic for conversation around the campus the following day. The second question that entered our mind was, what is there that gives women as a whole the desire to don men's clothing? If there is any man in this world who is ambitious of wearing skirts we have not heard of him yet. This fact is not only of co-eds alone, but of the whole female race. Imagine the men of the university at a mass turning out in women's apparel. Not a man in the university has the slightest desire to do such a thing."

From these affairs of the women students men are nominally excluded, but it seldom happens that some one of the male students does not penetrate the sanctum in disguise. Sometimes these mischevious college men have even been so bold as to take flashlight photographs of the "doings," escaping through an open window. These photos have later been reproduced in the college annual, the Blue and Gold, to the consternation of the participants in the "jinks."

It is rumored that the attack made by the student editor upon the girls has back of it a secret grudge on the part of some of the students, who, after lending part of their wearing apparel to the girls who desired to attend the "jinks," have had it returned to them in somewhat different shape than it was loaned. It is customary for the women students to appear at these affairs in football suits, corduroy trousers, military uniforms, dress suits, and various other articles of male wear, all borrowed from their obliging acquaintance of the male half of the student body.

Opinion is somewhat divided among the girls as to how the editorial of Alfred Fletcher should be received. Some of them believe that the student editor has meddld in business not his own, and has overstepped the bounds of college journalism. A few of the girls join with the editor in warning their college mates against donning male attire at these "jinks." Others believe that they have a right to do as they please, following in this, the fashion set at Vassar, Wellesley and Smith, and other Eastern colleges for women.

Miss Phoebe Binney, a graduate of the University with the class of 1906, and a member of the exclusive Alpha Phi Sorority who has always been foremost in college affairs, and a leader in college society, considers that the question of bifurcated garments at the "jinks," is entirely too insignificant to be taken up by the student paper. She said:

"I do not believe that there is anything improper in the Hearst Hall "jinks." The Daily Californian is making a mountain out of a mole hill. The newspapers, including the college paper, are too quick to criticise the students. In this instance, the college newspaper, has most certainly overstepped its bounds. The sole excuse that it has for being is to serve as a gazetteer of college news."

Miss Mary Downey, another leading light in college society, falls in with the sentiment expressed by Miss Binney. She said:

LET THE GIRLS ALONE.

"The college paper is evidently hard up for something with which to fill its space, to publish such stuff. At liVassar and other eastern colleges for women, such a little matter as gym Jinks would not occasion public criticism, and I do not see why the girls should not be permitted to enjoy in peace their own little affairs in a co-educational institution."

Miss Hazel Hobson does not believe that the co-eds should appear in men's garments on any occasion whatsoever, but she considers that with this feature omitted, the gym jinks are and excellent institution.

"I certainly do not approve," she said, "of the women students appearing in male attore at the jinks. It invites criticism, and could hardly be called ladylike. Apart from this feature the jinks should be encouraged. At these affairs everybody enters into the spirit of the occasion, and many new friendships are made. The unity of the women students is furthered by such informal gatherings."

STANDING IN PRIZE CONTEST WILL BE PUBLISHED SUNDAY

Hundreds Are Scouring the Country for Tribune Votes for Popular Candidates.

THE TRIBUNE Sunday will announce the names and number of votes cast for the candidates in the Great Popularity Contest. To enter the race early means much to the vote gatherer. Hundreds are already canvassing the county and city for votes and Sunday's prize lists will no doubt be news to everybody. The names should be entered as soon as possible so the public can learn who are in the race and how they stand. Many stray votes can be gathered by just being a popular candidate and having your name on the list at the beginning of the race.

Paid up subscriptions are those that speak. It's a very easy matter to get monthly paid-in-advance subscription for 65 cents. The best of all is the 1000 extra vote coupons which is offered for a year's paid-in-advance subscription. A candidate knowing of anyone who takes THE TRIBUNE by the month, can easily get him to pay up by the year and reap these 1000 votes. Votes are an easy matter to secure, and much work for the future can be saved if you make a clean start and get in the contest early.

Many votes have already been polled, and others are coming. The Circulation Department of THE TRIBUNE will be glad to furnish information regarding the contest and communications by mail should be addressed to the Contest Manager, Oakland TRIBUNE.

HENEY'S AXE SPLITS THE BELVEDERE CASE OPEN

Graney at White Heat Denies Charges of Extortion Relative to Music Hall Fund.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—With a heavy swing of the ax Francis J. Heney split the case of the Belvedere wide open yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the grand jury. The witnesses called to testify in regard to the music hall were astounded at the intimate knowledge o fthe inner affairs of the concern displayed by the prosecutor. The minutest details growing out of various conversations among the stockholders were cited to refresh their memories.

All of the witnesses, when questioned as to the mysterious twenty-five per cent of the stock, which it is asserted went to Ruef, claimed that if any such payment was made it was done by Eddie Graney. This attempt to place the entire responsibility upon the shoulders of Graney has warmed his wrath to white heat. Graney was on the stand for only a minute yesterday afternoon. He will be the first witness called today, and the most important revelations of the entire session are promised.

It will be shown that the Belvedere was run is violation of the city ordinances designed to safeguard public morality, and that in order to conduct such a resort it was necessary for the management to pay Ruef. Payment, it is claimed, was made in the shape of twenty-five per cent of the stock of the compasy. Whether the charge of this case will be bribery or extortion will be determined by the testimony yet to be submitted. It will be claimed that Graney, in the presence of several witnesses, asked Herbert Choynski, formerly attorney for the Belvedere for an extra twenty-five per cent of the stock in order to "fix Ruef."

STAU BROUGHT UP ON REMAND

German Detectives Are Hot on Trail—Cashed Check Turns Up.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Karl Hau, alias Stau, professor of Roman law in George Washington University at Washington, who was arrested in this city November 8, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law at Baden-Baden, was brought upon remand at the Bow-street Police Court today and was again remanded, as the papers in the extradition proceedings had not arrived from Germany.

Attorney Wilson, counsel for Hau, has not yet determined whether or not to fight his client's extradition and will not arrive at a decision until he has studied the papers in the case.

VIENNA, Nov. 21.—The investigations of the local police in regard to the movements of Karl Hau, who is held by the London police on the charge of having murdered his mother-in-law at Baden-Baden, have satisfied them that he arrived in Vienna from Constantinople on October 17. They assert that he cashed a check for $2000 in a Vienna bank on that date, but Hau denied this. A few days later a telegram from London, believed to be fictitious, reached the bank, asserting that the check had been stolen from Hau. The description of the man who cashed the check answers to Hau.

CITY'S GROWTH MANIFESTED

Electrician Applies for More Help—Work of Department Has Doubled.

The rapid growth of this city was brought to the notice of the Police and Fire Commissioners this morning when City Electrician Babcock applied for more assistance, declaring that his work had doubled. The Board will recommend that Babcock be given another assistant.

Babcock declares that thirty new police boxes and twenty additional fire boxes, together with several miles of wire have been added during the past three years.

The application of W. H. Perkins of 1705 Tenth street for a position as a police officer was filed.

The communication from the City Electrician asking for an appropriation of $499 to purchase underground cable was referred to the City Council.

SINGLE BID IS REJECTED

Cost of Proposed Fire House Necessitates Change in Material.

The amount of the single bid received for the construction of the new fire house on Magnolia street near Fourteenth street showed the Board of Public Works this morning that the structure will have to be built of some other material than reenforced concrete, as was at first planned, as the cost will be greater than the appropriation of $15,000. The board ordered Architect Soderberg to revise his plans and specifications so that the house will be constructed of brick. The matter will come up again next Wednesday.

The only bid was rejected, being too high. The bid was from Robert Knox, and his bid for the reenforced concrete structure was $22,395, and $1050 for the fence and bitumen. The members of the board will consult the architect and ascertain if the plans and specifications can be changed in order to make the cost of the building come within the appropriation of $15,000.

10 HOUR DAY IS GRANTED

President of Lackawanna Will Make Concessions to All Trainmen.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 21.—President W. H. Truesdale of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, today announced that the company would grant a ten hour day to all trainmen in its employes. This concession, which already has been granted engineers and switchmen, he said, will be made applicable to all other employes and the order will be made effective so far as it is possible to operate a railroad.

Committees of the trainmen and conductors are conferring this afternoon with General Superintendent Clarke. They ask for the ten hour day and increased wages.

President Truesdale having disposed of the former proposition, Mr. Clarke will be allowed to arrange the wage increase.

A hero is a man who happened to be on hand at the right time and made good.

RUEF AND SCHMITZ WILL FIGHT ACCUSERS ON STAND

Their Sworn Testimony Will Be Feature of Defense Before Judge Dunne.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Judge Frank H. Dunne of the Superior court is the man who will preside over the trials of Abraham Ruef and Mayor Schmitz when they are brought to the bar of justice to answer to the first indictments that have been returned against them as a result of the municipal graft investigation by District Attorney Langdon and Francis J. Heney. Judge F. G. Murasky, acting as Presiding Judge, in the absence from the city of Presiding Judge Graham, yesterday assigned the cases arising from the five indictments against each man on the charge of extortion from French restaurant keepers to Judge Dunne, in Department 6 of the Superior court.

The question of which court would be chosen for the trial of the graft cases has aroused considerable interest among those connected with the investigation, and Judge Murasky's action is taken as an indication that the greater portion of the expected indictments will be assigned to Judge Dunne for trial, to the exclusion of the other criminal departments. The choice of departments naturally lay between those presided over by Judge Lawlor, Judge Carroll Cook or Judge Dunne, as these as a rule receive all criminal cases. The two former, however, were practically eliminated from any connection with the case, for the reason that Judge Lawlor would not have been acceptable to the defense, while the prosecution would not have been satisfied to conduct the trial before Judge Cook. Attorneys for both sides have expressed a preference for Judge Dunne, and there is not even the remotest possibility that a change of venue will be taken.

The trial on the five joint indictments will undoubtedly be called soon. Judge Dunne said yesterday that his calendar is light at present and will allow of a prompt hearing of the cases if the contending attorneys wish to have them go ahead rather than wait for the usual run of minor cases to be disposed of. He said that he would take no action in the matter unless requested to do so by those directly interested, but that in case both the prosecution and defense cared to have the trials begun as soon as possible he could probably place them on his calendar within a week if necessary. In case an effort is made to set aside the indictments it will be much longer before the taking of the evidence can be commenced.

It was positively decided yesterday in a conference between Ruef and his attorneys that the former will take the witness stand in his own defense when his case is brought to trial, and his own sworn testimony will be relied upon as one of the strongest features of the defense. He will be subjected to a rigid cross-questioning by Heney, which the prosecution believes will strengthen the case against him.

Schmitz, too, will take the stand, in pursuance of the policy determined upon by the defense, and will be required to tell in his own words of the various deals by which he is accused of having turned his official position into a means for personal financial gain.

COMPANY SUES TO OUST A PATRIOTIC BONIFACE

Arlington Hotel Owners Claim Tenant Violated Lease by Housing Marine Recruiting Party.

"Colonel" Henry Mayers, who with 15,000 others including his old-time friend, Mark Twain, enrolled as San Francisco as a volunteer to carry arms in the Civil Was, is the defendant in a suit filed by the John Nicholl company yesterday, which alleges he violated a lease contract by renting rooms at the Arlington hotel to a United States Marine Corps recruiting party. "Colonel" Mayers awaits the return to this city of his lawyer, Reese Clark, when it is anticipated a bitter contest will be waged between the patriotic boniface and the owners of the hostelry he conducts.

The lease of the Arlington at 474 Ninth street was granted to the wife of "Colonel" Mayers September 10, 1901, for a term of five years. On the death of the lessee the lease passed to her husband and her son. Later the son sold his share to A. C. Kyte, who with "Colonel" Mayers is also a defendant in the suit.

In terse legal phrase the lease given to Mrs. Mayers forbids the two upper stories of the building being used for any other purpose than a hotel.

Driven from his headquarters in San Francisco by the earthquake and fire Major Davis, in command of the marine recruiting party, moved to Oakland and rented rooms as office and living rooms for the enlisted men who accompanied him from "Colonel" Mayers.

"I am patriotic," declares the "Colonel," "and felt I was doing my duty to my country and fellow man by renting the rooms to the recruiting party."

"The enlisted men," continued the hotelkeeper, "a sergeant, corporal and private, lived entirely at the hotel and I did not consider my action as a violation of the lease."

Further discussing the subect, "Colonel" Mayers declared he had spent $2000 to repair the building and that since the departure of the recruiting party the Nicholl company had declined to accept the rent for the building, $150 monthly, though he had proffered it many times and informed the owners the money awaited them at the First National bank.

"Colonel" Mayers has been a resident of Oakland for three years. Before taking up his home here he lived in San Francisco where he arrived in 1853 and opened a jewelry store on Montgomery street, which he conducted for thirty-five years.

Whether Uncle Sam will come to the aid of "Colonel" Mayers in the suit which overhangs him, is not known, but the testimony of Major Perkins and his subordinates who boast of the hospitality of the former landlord promises to make the hearing of the case an interesting event.

MAYOR MOTT ASKED FOR ASSISTANCE

An appeal to Mayor Mott for assistance in locating her aunt, Mrs. Ellen C. Francis, has been made by Miss Rosalie Smott of Los Angeles in the following letter:

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 18, 1906.
To the Mayor of Oakland—Dear Sir: Twelve years ago I had an aunt living in Oakland and who owned property there. Her name was Ellen C. Francis. She had two sons, Romeo (sometimes called "Mote") Francis and Frank Francis. At one time, for the sake of being near the boy's work, she moved to San Francisco, but I think only stayed a short time. Please help me to find her and very greatly oblige by addressing,

MISS ROSALIE SMOOT,

Mayor Mott is in receipt of an inquiry from Mr. J. F. Kynoch, of Fairfield, Cal., inquiring for the name of a bourding or training school that will take boys at the age of seven years.

name spread all over the city and perhaps the country."

Captain Stephenson said his informant told him tha' Mrs. Graham is a woman of eminent respectability. He declared that her failure to appear would make little difference as to the outcome of the case against Caruso.

Officer Cain, the park policeman who arrested Caruso, was the first witness called. He said he had seen Caruso in the building before and had watched hi mparticularly. In the monkey house he saw Caruso following two girls, one of these girls being about twelve years old.

Counsel for Caruso objected to this testimony, declaring that there was only one woman mentioned in the complaint against the prisoner.

The objection was overruled.

Cain gave some sensational testimony. He said he saw Caruso move up close to Mrs. Graham and then saw one of Caruso's hands glide stealthily through a slit in his overcoat, and then he saw Caruso pinch the woman. Mrs. Graham turned swiftly and struck Caruso in the chest, crying out: "You brute, you beast."

CHAMPAGNE COMES TO JURY'S AID

Whoever or whatever the source, the sports immediately concerned are apparently convinced that a few or all of them will have to submit to a harder ordeal than the questionings of a Heney or the sweating of a Burns.

Investigation of the "fight trust" graft seems to center about Willus Britt, who is reported to have asserted that he gave Ruef $5000 to obtain fight permits for the Associated Athletic Clubs, managed by Coffroth, Graney, Britt and Morris Levy.

"Is it not possible that Willus Britt, while in his cups, boasted of having paid Ruef $5000 to secure fight permits?" Heney asked Coffroth.

"Britt has not been drunk since the earthquake," replied Coffroth.

"Was he not drunk for two weeks after the earthquake?" asked Heney again.

"Yes, I believe he was," admitted the witness.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE.

That t one of the kuartet of sport managers is responsible for the ticklish position they and the police cimcissioners, with other city officials find themselves in is partially based on the fact that each of the four is at outs with the other. They are prone to use the harshest terms known to the sporting fraternity in speaking one another, and it is probably that inside facts were in unguarded moments divulged by one or all of them.

The grand jury seems to have taken up the "fight trust" graft with particular vim because its operations during the present administration involves not only the members of the trust, but the entire board of supervisors, with its police committe, the mayor, probably, and undoubteedly Abe Ruef.

The fight permits were granted by the supervisors on the recommendation of the police committee which is composed of W. W. Sanderson, chairman, E. J. Walsh and C. J. Harrigan.

ABOUT THE BELEVEDERE.

Heney, in examing Coffroth, at first questioned the promoter as to his connection with the Belvedere. Then Heney's inquiries turned to the trust, and Coffroth explained, saying in part:

"The expenses of the combine were paid out of the proceeds from the first fight," said Coffroth. "I drew up the articles of incorporation myself and filed them; that cost was in all about $72, which I had returned to me after the first fight in February, the Nell-Tenny match, which resulted in the death of Tenny. That fight was given under the auspices of Morris Levy and he paid the city the $1200 license out of the proceeds of that fight. After those accounts were settled we divided the surplus."

The efforts of Heney and Burns are now directed towards proving that many expenditures of the combine booked as expenses were in reality stipends to officials to insure protection and assure big gate receipts.

FORMER INFIDEL GIVES LECTURE

William Simpson Addresses Hearers on "The Thief on the Cross."

"The Thief on the Cross" was the subject expounded Tuesday evening by William Simpson, who has been holding a series of meetings in the large tent on Broadway and Sixteenth street for the last month.

Mr. Simpson's motive is to disprove such erroneous ideas as that Jesus took the thief to Paradise with him the day upon which he was crucified. He quoted texts which clearly show that Jesus did not go to Heaven until after he was resurrected, neither did the thief die until at least the following day.

"The Angels: Are They the Spirits of the Dead? Who Are They? What Is Their Work?" is the subject for tonight.

Catarrh of the Stomach

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago, Ills., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, Catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

NEWS FROM BERKELEY AND CITY OF ALAMEDA

ROUGH HOUSE AT BEER BUST

Members of Freshman Class Hold Saturnalia—Dr. Rowley Has a Little Bill.

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—A beer bust in Lincoln hall, South Berkeley, last Saturday night, participated in by members of the freshmen class of the university has resulted in an unusually stiff bill being sent by Dr. M. M. Rowley to the college promoters of the "bust" for demolished furniture and broken windows and electric light globes. Unless the money is soon forthcoming there is trouble in store.

It was after a brief menu had been disposed of that the steins were raised frequently with prosits and yells and favorite songs. As the amber-colored liquor flowed more freely the spirit of good fellowship increased and it was as the hours were getting smaller and the night was preparing to give way to day that the college men let loose with a will and did their best to demolish the furniture of Dr. Rowley.

When seen today Dr. Rowley refused to show the room where the banquet took place. He said he had decided to make a few repairs before he allowed visitors. As it stood it was not fit to be seen. He said, however, that some of the damage could be seen from the outside and he pointed to unsightly holes in the windows.

There were fully a hundred men at the banquet. The long tables were filled, many of the guests coming early. Most of them stayed late and what took place at the hall is best explained by the fact that Dr. Rowley has sent in his bill. When the people in the neighborhood of the hall saw the amount of beer which arrived the more envious stated that there was enough to flood a ship. But there was little left the next morning.

It is understood that the men will settle in a day or two. They prefer to do this than have their names made public. And Dr. Rowley has stated that if his terms are not complied with there will be interesting developments.

FOR THE POOR AND NEEDY

Big Thanksgiving Dinner Is Planned—Pound Party Will Be Given.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 15.—To secure funds so that all the poor of the city may have a suitable Thanksgiving dinner a "pound party" is to be given at the residence of Mrs. Phillip Teller on Central avenue, on Monday afternoon and evening. Plans are rapidly being perfected for the affair and it now seems assured of meeting hearty response from the residents of the Island city.

These affairs have heretofore been great successes and have netted a handsome sum for the needy. Those who desire may bring donations to the party.

There will be a musical program and instrumental solos. Miss Evelyn Levkowicz, a graduate of the local high school, is to give a whistling solo. Miss Levcowicz has appeared before Alameda audiences in former times and her whistling is remarkable. During the afternoon tea is to be served by a number of pretty girls, and all details are now completed and there is nothing to do but wait for the worthy event.

DATE IS SET FOR DEBATE

Annual Freshman-Sophomore Debate Will be Held on Monday Evening Next.

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—The annual freshman-sophomore debate which was originally set for Friday evening has been definitely scheduled to take place next Monday night at 8 o'clock in Hearst Hall.

The question is "Resolved, That Cuba Should Be Annexed to the United States." The sophomores will uphold the affirmative side while the freshmen will speak on the negative. The judges have not as yet been chosen.

A. Kilgore, W. M. Pillsbury and H. D. Hoover, will uphold the sophomore's end of the question, while H. R. Bergh, H. H. Savage and S. O'Melveany will argue for the freshmen.

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—A public meeting of the California branch of the American Folk-Lore Society will be held in room 22, South Hall, on Tuesday evening, November 27, at 8 o'clock. Professor John Fryer will speak on "The Chinese Inferno." The lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides. The public will be welcome.

DENOUNCE ELSIE PARSONS AND HER FREAKY IDEAS ON MARRIAGE QUESTION

The Divines Score Her Book.

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—The Berkeley clergy has taken a decided stand in opposition to the principles expressed in the book recently issued from the pen of Elsie Clews Parsons, in which she advocates trial marriages, to be followed by separation, should either party see fit. "It means the destruction of the very idea of a home," were the words used yesterday by the Rev. L. A. McAfee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, relative to the matrimonial idea expressed by Mrs. Parsons, who is a doctor of philosophy, a Hartley House fellow, and for six years a lecturer in sociology at Harvard. The book containing her views has caused widespread comment in New York because of the prominence of the writer. Mrs. Elsie Clews Parsons is the daughter of Henry Clews, the banker, and the wife of Herbert Parsons of New York city.

"I am utterly opposed to the suggestion," continued Rev. McAfee. "It is absolutely preposterous and could not be considered for a moment by any sane-minded person. I am anxiously waiting to see what Jane Addams of Chicago will have to say upon this book."

Rev. Philo Phelps believes wedded life is already sufficiently beset with difficulties without adding any more. He says:

"This book will create a commotion, not because of its better qualities, of which it has many, but because it proposes an easy solution for a very hard problem. But the easy is not always the safe way, and the marriage life is already weak enough in America without Mrs. Parsons' plea for 'trial marriages.'

"Where civilization has been purest and best the husband has been a true house-band, holding the home together in a life-long unity, and all glittering talk about time marriages tends to rob these dear old titles of husband and wife of their real meaning as well as the home of its permanency and marriage of its sacredness.

"Isn't the wedded life already enough beset with difficulties to inspire all who love it to labor for its stability and abiding unity? Did home life ever face so many hard questions to solve as now? Think how the new freedom and independence of women, begotten of her entrance into all departments of business endangers married life. Or look at city life today, with its rented homes, its families living in flats. Why, the number of divorces annually granted to residents of cities in the United States is from one-third to one-half greater than the number granted to the residents in the country. The cook stove of the flat and the radiator of the apartment hotel seem to be poor enough attractions now for home unity and permanency. Haven't we too many 'trial marriages' already?

"Our court records swarm with the story of divorce made easy through lax divorce laws until about the only difference between us and the Mormons is that we Americans drive our wives tandem while the Mormons drive them four or six abreast. If Mrs. Parsons lived in the West she would find little need of pleading for time or trial marriages. We boast of our growing population of 60 per cent, but we have no reason to boast of our recent increase of divorces of 156 per cent. Under such conditions is Mrs. Parsons' plea needed?"

Rev. Dr. Morrison of St. Joseph's Catholic Church had the following to say:

"There is only one opinion for a Catholic priest to entertain about the merits of such teaching as set forth in this book. I look upon such doctrines as a step back into barbarism. The experiment of trial marriages would be to place human beings on the same plane as the lower animals who live a promiscuous life and maintain promiscuous relations. Doctrines like this are sickening in the extreme."

"It is no little surprise that a book of this kind should have been written by a woman. The author should know that the very thing that she expects to be a relief for woman would end in her undoing. A person must be very poorly versed in history not to know that whatever of dignity attaches to woman comes from the sanctity with which the church in earlier times surrounded the sacrament of matrimony. The Catholic religion teaches that marriage is a sacred institution. It is not a mere human agreement to be set aside at the pleasure of the people who make it. The Catholic church refuses to recognize divorce. Separations are sometimes permitted but the marriage still binds. Those who for sufficient reasons separate are not free to remarry during the life time of the other. Some think this hard but right order, which is divine order, demands that the convenience of the individual be made subservient to the well-being of society."

"Do you think a book like this will have great effect on the thought or manners of society?" was asked.

"Not at all," he replied. "People who are influenced by such stuff as go into the making of this book are little worse after reading than they were before, while people with a right sense of domestic morals are not influenced by writings of this questionable kind."

Rev. R. P. Shepherd, pastor of the First Christian Church, has rendered an opinion that there is food for reflection in the book and that it will meet with the approval of certain classes. That the entire divorce system is deranged is brought out in the reverend gentleman's remarks.

"This idea is by no means new in academic circles, and about the best way I can express my opinion of the whole thing is in the words of Lincoln, used many years ago with reference to a book: 'Those that like that sort of a thing will find this just the sort of a thing they like.' To those who want it so, marriage is but a probation at best. I wish to lay particular stress upon the prerequisites of marital concord and find fault with the legal remedies for the inevitable discord. I am inclined to favor the proposition made several years ago to take the divorce matters out of the hands of the lawyers and place it within the jurisdiction of the other prominent professions—inasmuch as the doctors of medicine are best fitted to judge such matters."

Rev. William Herman Hopkins of the First Congregational Church asks for prevention rather than cure. He says:

"Those whom God hath joined together are joined for longer than a trial term. But as it appears, there are marriages with which God has little to do. At length, in some of these cases, separation in peace may be better than union in inevitable discord. But even here neither the man or woman is justified in trying and trying again till he or she succeeds. The 'trial marriage,' widespread, would rob the land of much of its old glory, and it is to be feared, cut deep into the roots of our national existence.

"Let us attend more to prevention and there will be less call for cure. Let laws be made and enforced that will hold the unfit apart and let those qualified enter the holy estate advisedly and in the fear of God and the question of 'trial' will become insignificant."

is a heritage too sacred to be experimented with. For her peculiar and delicate ailments only medicines of known composition and which contain no alcohol, narcotics, or other harmful or habit-forming drugs should be employed. The one medicine which fulfills all these requirements is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy with a record of over forty years of cures to recommend it; a remedy, the makers of which print its formula on every bottle-wrapper and attest its completeness and correctness under oath; a remedy devised and adapted to woman's delicate constitution by an educated physician—an experienced specialist in woman's diseases; a remedy, every ingredient of which has received the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar diseases; a remedy which has more bona-fide cures to its credit than any other sold by druggists for woman's special requirements. It is not given away in the form of "trial bottles" to be experimented with, but is sold at a fair price by all dealers in medicines.

Delicate, weak, nervous women should especially shun the use of alcoholic medicines which, from their stimulating and exhilerating effects may seem, for a time, to do good, but which from the inevitable effects of the alcohol in shrinking up the red corpuscles of the blood are sure to do great and lasting harm in the long run. Besides they beget a craving for stimulants which is most deplorable.

Only invigorating and nerve strengthening effects can follow the use of this famous medicine for women. It can not possibly do harm in any state or condition of the system. It has been carefully adapted to woman's needs by an experienced physician—a specialist in their diseases. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or pelvis, backache, frequent headaches, dizzy or fainting spells, is nervous and easily startled, has gnawing feeling in stomach, sees imaginary floating specks, or spots before her eyes, has melancholia, or "blues," or a weakening disagreeable drain from pelvic organs, she can make no mistake by resorting to the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will invigorate and tone up the whole system and especially the pelvic organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Perscription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic, "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

No woman suffering from any of the above symptoms can afford to accept any secret nostrum or medicine of unknown composition, as a substitute for a medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is OF KNOWN COMPOSITION and has a record of over forty years of cures and sells more largely to-day than ever before. Its makers withhold no secrets from their patients, believing open publicity to be the very best guaranty of merit.

Dr. Pierce invites all suffering women to consult him by letter free of charge. All letters of consultation are held as strictly private and sacredly confidential and all answers are returned in plain, sealed envelopes. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

MYSTERIOUS DEATHS.

Coroner H. J. Curry came down from Martinez yesterday morning to officiate at three inquests in cases of death from unnatural causes or peculiar circumstances.

The first called was that of Michael Erickson, whose body was found lying along the Santa Fe wharf here several weeks since. He either fell or was thrown from a river steamer in the San Pablo bay on the 6th of October. He was a member of the Red Men in San Francisco. No further facts than these were adduced at the inquest.

C. A. Jackson dropped dead while en route to Oakland on an East Shore & Suburban car a couple of weeks ago and the jury rendered a verdict that he came to his death from heart disease.

The third inquest was in the case of C. A. Collins, a switchman killed while in the performance of his duties for the Santa Fe. The jury held the company to blame for the death.

PERSONALS.

W. R. Gregory and A. R. Hall returned yesterday from Lake county where they have been on a fishing and hunting expedition for the past fortnight. They report lots of game and an excellent outing.

Frank Adila, a practical creamery man, who comes from Mill Valley, is fitting up the Critchet building and installing machinery for a plant which he will have in operation by the first of the coming month.

The first installment of machinery for the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company has arrived and more will follow in a few days.

Miss Laura Carpenter of Martinez was in Richmond yesterday reporting the inquests held here by Coroner Curry.

T. J. Kenney left Richmond yesterday morning for Long Beach, where he has a position with the Nelson Navigation Company. Mrs. Keeney will remain here for a short time and visit before joining her husband in their new home.

S.S.S. HAS BEEN CURING CATARRH FOR FORTY YEARS

S. S. S. is not a new treatment for Catarrh; it has been curing the disease for more than forty years, and so universally successful has it been that it has won an established place in the confidence of the people as a remedy for this disgusting, troublesome and dangerous disorder.

Catarrh is not merely a stubborn or protracted cold, as some people seem to think; it is a deep-seated and serious blood disorder, more generally affecting the body than any other disease. Hardly any part of the system is exempt from the trouble; it attacks the head, throat, stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, lungs and other members, and its effects often completely break down and undermine the entire constitution.

This catarrhal condition is usually first noticed after the contracting of a cold. The inner skin and tissues of the body become irritated and inflamed and secrete an unhealthy matter, which is absorbed into the blood; this foreign matter corrupts and diseases the circulation, and as the blood goes to every nook and corner of the body the poisonous matter with which it is loaded is deposited to set up inflammation and disease of the different members. Catarrh has more disgusting and annoying symptoms than any other trouble. There is a constant buzzing noise in the ears, a watery discharge from the nostrils, headaches and pains in the eyes, stringy, filthy matter drops back into the throat, requiring continual hawking and spitting, the breath has an offensive odor, slight fever often accompanies the disorder, gradually the entire blood supply becomes tainted and diseased and the system completely disordered and upset. After awhile the kidneys and bladder become affected, chronic Dyspepsia or Catarrh of the stomach develops, and the disease settles in some vital place, generally the lungs, because of the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and Catarrh terminates in consumption, a hopeless and fatal disease.

Catarrh is usually worse in Winter, because of the cold and dampness and suddenly changing temperature, but it is in no sense a disease dependent on climatic conditions for its development. Neither is it a trouble to be cured with sprays, washes, inhalations and such treatment; these merely relieve the reflex symptoms for awhile, but they are fanned into existence again at the next exposure to unfavorable weather.

CURED FORTY YEARS AGO.

During the Civil War I contracted Catarrh and suffered terribly with it. It was so bad that I had lost my hearing, sense of taste, as well as being nearly blind. I had tried various medicines and specialists, spending a large sum of money on them, but with no perceptible results. One day I was driving along the road when I found one of your little pamphlets. I took it home and read it carefully. I decided that it fitted my case exactly, so I abandoned all other remedies and doctors, and began using your S. S. S. I took several bottles, when much to my joy I found myself a well man. All my senses were fully recovered, and I am happy to relate that I have never had the slightest return of the ailment. I am now 75 years old and enjoy good health for my age. I cheerfully and gratefully recommend S. S. S. as the remedy that cured me of Catarrh

L. S. LOCHRIDGE,

Fordyce, Ark.

As Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease the very best constitutional treatment is required to effect a cure. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and is therefore the remedy best fitted for the work of removing the cause and permanently curing the trouble. Forty years of successful service have proven the worth of this great medicine in the treatment of Catarrh. S. S. S. is peculiarly suited as a remedy for this disease. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks, without the least addition of mineral medicines. S. S. S. goes down into the blood and removes the catarrhal matter and poison, and its gentle acting vegetable properties strengthen and repair the diseased membranes and tissues so that when the cause has been removed the entire system is left in a state of perfect health. S. S. S. also tones up the stomach and digestion, and acts as a fine tonic to the entire system. S. S. S. has been curing Catarrh for more than forty years, and what it has done in the past is a guarantee of what it will do in the future. It is not an experiment, but a real blood purifier tested by time, for blood diseases like Catarrh. Write for our book which contains information about Catarrh, and ask our physicians for any medical advice you desire. No charge for either.

NOT A SOU FOR BONI; THE COUNTESS SAYS SO

Anna Gould Exercises Woman's Prerogative of Changing Her Mind---The Count Will Not Gather.

PARIS, Nov. 21.— Madame Gould, formerly the Countess Boni de Castellane, has reconsidered her generous impulse to deal liberally with Count Boni. She will not give him a sou.

When the divorce was granted, Judge Ditte swept aside the count's claim of $50,000 per annum for subsistence money, which claim the then countess had refused to accede to, and furthermore decided that the count had no right to the $30,000 "alimentary money" (food fund), which his wife had conceded him.

In view of these drastic decisions which reduced Count Boni to practical beggary it was announced "with authority" that Mme. Gould would allow the count a settlement—in effect a pension—which would keep him from want. Since that time, however, Mme. Gould has learned that the count's penitence was altogether assumed and that any allowance she might make would be wasted in profligacy. So Mme. Gould has shut her purse with a snap and decided not to throw another of the Gould dollars to Count Boni and that he may starve as far as she is concerned.

The famous Castellane dinner to King Carlos of Portugal. One of the occasions on which Count Boni publicly humiliated his wife by his ardent attentions to other women was the famous dinner given by the Count and Countess in honor of King Carlos of Portugal. The lavishness of this entertainment startled even Paris. King Carlos is pictured descending the stairway with the Countess de Castellane on his arm.

CHICAGO ISN'T SO MUCH AS A DIVORCE CENTER

The Government Expert Thinks the Eastern Cities Can Also Go Some in Separations.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.— Let American cities that have pointed scornful fingers at Chicago's roll of divorces no longer gasp in horrer, for Chicago is no worse on that score than other Western cities, and not so bad, it is hinted, as numerous urban centers of the East.

This is on the word of Oscar M. Pond, the government's expert on statistics, who today sent to Washington the last of 43,650 divorce records, compiled in a study of Chicago divorces granted during twenty years.

Before the end of the year Mr. Pond expects to have data on enough additional divorces to raise the city's divorce record of two decades to 45,000.

But this will not be all, for the government's curiosity as to life in Chicago is not appeased. Next year the experts, it was learned today, are to be turned loose in a study of criminal court records and a compilation of figures on Chicago's marriages.

AGED ACTRESS IS CARED FOR

Old Time Star of "Genevieve de Brabant" is Rescued From Poorhouse.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—England has come to the rescue of a famous old star whose existence had passed from its memory. Miss Lennox Grey, whose present name is Mrs. Louisa Gibson, was a premiere in the production of "Genevieve de Brabant" and other operas which the present generation has already forgotten. Recently she was "discovered" in a workhouse, and her sad story was told in a newspaper. The result was that she has now been transferred from a workhouse at Edmonton to an abode in the country, where she will receive weekly until her death a postal order for £1, subscribed by gentlemen who remain anonymous.

Her life story has again emphasized for the English how transient stage glory is. Miss Grey had been so thoroughly forgotten that when her condition of poverty was called to the attention of another actress who had often played with her the latter exclaimed: "Good heavens, you don't mean to say that she is still alive!"

Miss Grey was one of England's foremost actresses in the sixties and seventies, and the cause of her downfall was her being deserted by her husband. Then she was not young, and a subsequent marriage did not better her worldly station. The desertion took place in 1879, and the event marked the downfall of the once famous star. She, with Miss Emily Soldene, for whom a benefit is being arranged, are the only survivors of the "Genevieve de Brabant" company.

The committee which has been working in her behalf has included such well known names as Beerbohm Tree, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Frohman and George R. Sims.

"It makes me feel quite giddy," said Miss Goldene reminiscently of her old friend, "at once with sorrow and joy. Remember her? Why, of course I remember her! I think she was one of the most beautiful women who were ever on the stage. She was petite, of course, but she had the prettiest face and the loveliest figure imaginable. She had a way with her, too—any amount of delicacy and charm, and was altogether most fascinating.

"Indeed, I can recall what a wonderful being she seemed to me when she came home from India after her marriage. She was very exquisite then, and used to wear all sorts of mysterious spangled muslins and strange oriental ornaments—beetles and beads and things. Everything, too, about her was pervaded with the most luscious perfume—attar of roses, I suppose it was.

"Of course, I had never been round the world at that time, and all these things were quite a revelation to me. I used to gaze almost with veneration at the ayah whom she brought from India, and who used sometimes to come with her to the theater. Oh, yes, Miss Lennox Grey was very, very beautiful indeed. Every one was in love with her.

"As to her connection with 'Genevieve de Brabant'—of course I remember her taking the part very soon after the beginning of the phenomenal run of the piece. As a matter of fact, Mlle. Dolaro, the original Genevieve—not inappropriately to those who recollect the story of the play—became a mother a few months after the production. Indeed, she and her husband called the little daughter who was born Genevieve.

"Then Miss Lennox Grey went on tour with us in 'Genevieve,' and I can vividly recall her appearance in other light operas—'Chilperic,' for instance, and, above all, 'Little Faust,' in which she startled the world with a whistling solo. So far as I can remember, she was the first lady to give a whistling solo on the stage. Certainly she could have given points to Mrs. Shaw of a later date."

So far as concerns Mrs. Lennox Grey herself—or rather Mrs. Gibson—it may be added that not only is she an intensely interesting old lady personally, but both her first and her present husband claim notice in one way and another. Thus her first husband—Captain Lennox Grey—was at once godson of the late Duke of Richmond and the son of a Waterloo hero.

Her present husband, T. H. Gibson, whom misfortune has overtaken in his old age, is a classical scholar of quite remarkable attainments, an M. A. of Edinburgh, a pupil of Aytoun, and a friend of the late Prof. Blackie, who was himself a great admirer of Miss Grey's beauty and talents. Mr. Gibson, now sixty-nine, is well known as one of the most erudite debaters of the famous and ancient society of "Cogers," and, in spite of an old age of dire poverty, retains the dignity of a scholar and gentleman.

It may be added, as characteristic of the generosity of the late Sir Henry Irving, that on several occasions the former Miss Lennox Grey wrote to him for help, and each time "the remittance exceeded the appeal." Miss Ellen Terry also assisted in times past.

WOMEN MAY BE WORLD'S COOKS

One of Fair Sex Replaces Chef of Exclusive London Club.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The male chef is aghast, for the Marlboro club, the most exclusive in London, has been invaded by the woman cook.

Though the appointment of a feminine chef is more or less experimental, it is regarded with dismay in the highest culinary circles. P. Ackermann, secretary to the Chef Society, commenting on the experiment, said yesterday with suppressed emotion: "There is a big movement on at the present moment to employ women chefs. The Manchester Hotel, which formerly had a man chef, with a staff of twelve cooks, has now replaced these by a small army of women.

"Only yesterday I heard that a woman had displaced a male chef in a large residential hotel in the West End, and I know of other changes of a similar nature which are in contemplation. There seems to be a wave of women overwhelming the profession."

More cheerfully, he continued: "It will end in nothing, however. A staff of women was tried at the Hotel de Provence, Leicester-square, two or three years ago, and the experiment lasted exactly a fortnight. Woman will never replace the trained professional man in first-class hotels and restaurants. She has not the temperament of a successful chef. She may have the inspiration, but the power of organization, no. A big dinner to prepare means continual anxiety for the chef. At any moment a crisis may occur. An entire coure may be spoiled, for example. A man of iron nerve will rise to the occasion, but most women chefs, however accomplished, will lose their heads. I have a wife who is a most accomplished cook, and I know what I am talking about.

"Plain cooking in small hotels is all that it is fair to ask of a woman chef. Besides, these women who are now being experimentally tested have not had the training of the average male chef. He must be apprenticed for three years in a big hotel, and then spend four or five years further in perfecting himself. He must go through the stages of sweet chef, larder chef, vegetable chef, fish chef, sauce chef. The last is the most critical of all. I do not think women have sufficient application to stand such an exhaustive training."

COUNTESS AIDS LONDON'S POOR

German Noblewoman Is Known as "The Lady of the Docks."

LONDON, Nov. 21.—A woman missionary of title who does not even belong in England, has just closed a special mission in Wandsworth road, where she ministered to the poor for two weeks. She is the Countess Schimmelmann of Germany, and she divides her time between the German court and the poor of many countries, including America. She has even contemplated opening a forenoon service in the West End to enlist the efforts of the better classes in the work about which she is so enthusiastic.

Countess Schimmelmann is well known in London and this is not her first visit to its poor. Some years ago she became very well known to the denizens of the East End. Throughout two winters she remained in the dock district, using her yacht, the Dove, as headquarters, and doing what she could to remedy conditions thereabouts.

"The poor people called me 'the lady of the docks'" she said in speaking about her work the other day, "and they took very kindly to me. Some day I hope to visit them again and see whether they remember me. At that time, I remember, King Edward took a great interest in my work, and he wondered at my power of endurance in that I was able to remain on my yacht in the East End during the winter months."

The countess is now fifty-three, with just a touch of silver in her hair. She confesses that she was thirty before she realized the misery which lay about her, so carefully had unpleasant things been excluded from her life's vision. One day the Empress Augusta, to whom she was a lady-in-waiting, asked the countess to take her carriage and look at the prison in Berlin.

"For the first time I saw the sad side of that great city, and I felt that I must do what I could for the poor and the needy. Then it was that I commenced my lifework with a mission for fishermen. At first I had to encounter strenuous opposition on the part of certain of my relatives. Anticipating that I should devote my fortune to the cause I had at heart, they caused me to be kidnaped and held in confinement for about three months. But I triumphed in the end.

"During a visit to a German village I came across a family of ten who were living on a shilling a day. I reflected that if ten could live on that amount, it ought to be quite sufficient for myself. So for several years I lived on a shilling a day, devoting the remainder of my means to the amelioration of the lot of the poor among whom I worked. Finally my strength began to leave me, and now I find it necessary to live under more comfortable circumstances in order carry out my plans."

One of the countess' most ambitious schemes aims at providing food for the starving poor.

"Every one who is hungry has the right to be fed—whether he is worthy or not. Just think of the crime that would be prevented if a serious effort were made to put an end to the privation which one sees everywhere! My plan of feeding the hungry has been tried in several cities which I have visited in America, and I am told that in these places there has been a very marked lessening of crime.

"What I want is some rich people to pay each, say, £15 on one day in the year. (I don't know whether the amount would be entirely adequate for the purpose, but at any rate a vast amount of good could be done with it.) The day chosen by a donor for the use of his gift would bear his name."

Recently the countess was invited to dine with the Kaiser at Potsdam, and the outcome of a long conversation was that he gave her 100 bibles for distribution in Berlin. Each bears his imperial majesty's autograph, together with a few words of cheer and advice.

"The Emperor told me that Christian love was the one true international bond. He said that women were better able to carry on a good work than men, because they were not hindered by the political side of things.

"What a glorious thing it would be if, in these days of international concord, ladies of high rank in all parts of Europe would join hands to let light in where darkness exists among the suffering poor!"

WOMAN IN BED FOILS BURGLARS

Fair Sleeper Scares Away Four Masked Men by Her Screams.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—With only the reflection of a man's face in a mirror as a clew, the police of Williamsburg arrested Charles Mesino, the supposed leader of a quartet of housebreakers, who, early Thursday morning, made an unsuccessful attempt to rob Mrs. Philip Dana.

Wednesday Mrs. Dana cleared $1000 in a real estate transaction. She retired with the greenbacks tied about her body.

She awoke and in the dim light saw standing about her bed four men, each with a handkerchief tied about the lower half of his face.

A hand appeared before her face, and there was a momentary glint of light on the barrel of a revolver. A hand grabbed her hair and a muffled voice demanded her money. She answered that there was no money in the house.

For the next few moments Mrs. Dana heard sounds made by the opening and shutting of bureau drawers, while the leader of the thieves kept his hand closed about her throat. The searchers returned with a purse, in which only $3.35 was found. In his rage, the leader ordered: "Search the woman!"

Mrs. Dana then screamed and rolled out of bed. In the hall below there were sounds of approaching footsteps. The masked men fled.

As Mrs. Dana entered the dining-room she saw reflected in the mirror in the sideboard a face, the features of which were impressed upon her memory.

Later a man answering the description was arrested and Mrs. Dana identified him as the man whose face she had seen in the mirror.

GIRL TURNS A SERPENT LOOSE

She Breaks Up a High School Class by Releasing a Snake.

BATH, Me., Nov. 21.—Pupils of the Morse high school have been known to commit all kinds of jokes since they have been in the new building presented to the city a few years ago at a cost of nearly $100,000 by Charles W. Morse of New York, and they have been as varied as could be imagined. It has been the rule, however, to lay such jokes to the boys of the school, but this week a demure young lady perpetrated a trick which made any of those played by the booys look small in comparison.

She had been studying zoology, and had been presented with a snake considerable over twelve inches in length. This she carried to school, wearing it as a band about her hair, and then during a sly moment placed it in Principal Cole's desk. In an unseen moment the reptile made its escape from the desk and wriggled itself down on the platform and started for an exit, when it was seen by some of the girls, who became so frightened that they stood in their chairs, and it was only after some minutes of terror that one of the boys managed to capture it, when order was once more restored in the schoolroom.

FARCE MAKES ACTRESS A STAR

Ethel Matthews Becomes Famous by Her Portrayal in "The Amateur Socialist."

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Socialist has at last been put upon the stage. A new farce, "The Amateur Socialist," by W. Kingsley Tarpey, who is known in America as a writer on dramatic subjects, is proving popular at the Criterion, but curiously enough the chief personal interest evinced in the production is directed toward Miss Ethel Matthews, who plays the part of Lady Mabel Wriothesley.

This character has become one of the most important in the play, owing to the young lady's clever acting. Sir Hubert Pennefather, the amateur Socialist, is humored by most of his friends, including his wife, and by several of his inferiors in station. Lady Mary, however, is assigned the role of viewing him as a dangerous lunatic, and the situation has not only added to the success of the play but made another star.

LOVE TRUST UNDER BAN

Head of Love Syndicate Charged With Improper Use of U. S. Mails.

NE WYORK, Nov. 21.— Mrs. Hamilton Bina Verreault, head of the late lamented Love Syndicate, faced United States Commissioner Fields in the Federal building today. The charge against her is improper use of the mails, in writing to her victims.

Mrs. Verreault, except for her counsel Hugh R. Mills, was alone. Her black eyes sparkled as her husband, George Verreault took the stand as the first witness.

"Are you the husband horsewhipped by Mrs. Verreault?" asked Mr. Mills. Objection made and sustained.

"Did you make affidavit against your wife in her suit against the Manhattan Elevated Railroad?" was the next question asked.

"I did not; that letter you hold is a forgery," answered Mr. Verreault, banging the table.

"Liar," said the irate mistress of the House of Hearts. Mr. Verreault was then excused.

Leo Keisler was the next witness. Mr. Keisler read an extract from a letter he wrote to Mrs. Verreault while he was a suitor for her hand.

"Did you write this letter?" asked Mr. Mills.

Keisler blushed red as he looked at it and nodded.

"Read it, please," said the attorney.

"My Own Darling Sweetheart," stammered Keisler.

"A little louder, please," put in Mr. Doer.

"How could you have treated me so shamefully and disgracefully as you did," read the witness in firmer tones. "I love you more than you ever were or will be. To me you are the same and my love for you is eternal. The trinkets I have given you are associated with my best wishes, true love and pure affection. I wonder what your opinion is about retaining these trinkets. With an ounce of honor you could not retain them. What an infinite affection. I am forever and ever your true sweetheart."

"You never said anything to her about a divorce?" asked Mr. Mills.

"Never," said the witness, emphatically.

"If you had found her in a garret away from luxury would you have still asked her to marry you?" was Mills next question.

"I certainly would," replied the witness, who was then excused, mopping his brow.

Mr. Mills moved for a dismissal of the case against Mrs. Verreault, saying the purpose of this complaint was to trap women through the notorious personal column.

Commissioner Shields reserved his decision.

7 DAUGHTERS IN BRIDE'S GOWN

Children of Former Postmaster-General Gary Plan Novel Celebration.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 21.— When former Postmaster General and Mrs. James A. Gary celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary November 26, and give a reception the next evening, a pleasant milestone not often reached will have been passed.

The celebration will be remarkable in many ways. One will be that the seven daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gary will be present in their wedding gowns. Mrs. Theresa Wilson, now eighty-four years old, who was maid of honor at the wedding, will be the only member of the wedding party present beside General and Mrs. Gary. All the others are dead.

General and Mrs. Gary had ten children, and eight survive. M. E. Stanley Gary is the son. The daughters are: Mrs. Robert C. Taylor, of Boston; Mrs. Henry P. Janes, Mrs. Eugene Levering Jr., Mrs. Francis E. Pegram, Mrs. Van Lear Black, Mrs. Andrew H. Whitridge and Mrs. Harold Randolph.

Mr. Gary is in favor of early marriages, and cites his at twenty-three as one. He is the proprietor of the Alberton cotton mills, and his daughters and sons are prominent in social life.

WOMAN GRABS LARGE CODFISH

Nantucket Visitor Clings To Floundering Member of the Finny Tribe.

NANTUCKET, Nov. 21—Codfish are so plentiful about this island that they are washing ashore in the surf. Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Gardner of East Tawas, Mich., who are visiting relatives here, took a trip to the south shore Thursday to view the surf. Mrs. Gardner suddenly spied something floundering in the swash, and, dashing down the beach, grabbed a nine-pound codfish, which she clung to in spite of its struggles.

A Study in Scarlet.

A few days ago a wretched creature, who seems to have been impelled by poverty and domestic misery to enter upon a life of shame, was arrested by a vigilant police officer and charged with vagrancy. Of course, she denied the charge and asserted that she was an honest, virtuous working girl. It is only natural that a woman in her position would defend her reputation and her liberty with the only weapon at her command, falsehood. Only a man will refuse to lie when telling the truth will consign him to public ignominy and imprisonment.

This poor soiled thing, the sport of men's evil passions, had the temerity to place reliance in that stale fiction of the law, so often argued by attorneys who know its worth and disrepute, that every accused person is presumed to be innocent till proven guilty. She was new to Mrs. Warren's profession, and guileless in police court procedure. She committed the crime of lese majeste by demanding a jury trial. It was granted as the law directs, but—and here comes the pith of the story—her trial was set for thirty days in the future, and her bail fixed at a figure beyond her means. Thus she was confronted with the dilemma of pleading guilty and staining her name or lying in a stinking cell for a month before she could get the "speedy trial" the law—blessed instrument of human justice and mercy!—guarantees to rich and poor alike, a guarantee, by the way, that is as unreliable as a debtor's oath.

Thus enmeshed in the web of justice, the poor, frail creature, weak physically and morbid mentally, made her prison walls resound with her wails for mercy. For days she wept and implored, but the gentlemen who hold the scales of justice with such rare judgment and immaculate hands, stifled their compassion and held her relentlessly to her punishment. Being guiltless, they could cast as many stones as they liked, and besides, were nerved by a high sense of public duty. In reading this all too common a tale of police court methods, let no man bethink himself of Angelo, the impeccable deputy in "Measure for Measure."

To regain her liberty, the wretched woman apologized for disputing the word of a policeman, admitted that she had committed a crime in demanding a jury trial, cast her remaining remnant of reputation to the winds and pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy. She was then dismissed on probation, with a lecture from the bench on the evil consequences of keeping bad company. Then she was allowed to go with a loving sister who promised to give her a home. It is to be hoped that she will sin no more. But if she does and gets arrested she will never again commit the folly of demanding a jury trial, having found how that palladium of our liberties works for women of her class.

But why was the law and its ministers so firm with this amateur in the oldest profession in the world? There are others. They parade Broadway daily decked out in the raiment that marks their calling. They are bold of mien and frank in advertising their business. Even their very dogs are known to the police. Their trade is as notorious and evil smelling as the City Hall itself. The police and constabulary are as familiar with the places where it is plied as they are with the walls of the police station. Every official in the city knows they sell liquor without a license. Still they are not arrested for vagrancy. They have a regular occupation, God be praised, and a visible means of support. Are they immune from arrest because they make no pretense of mantling their shame with the robe of respectability? It is to be presumed, at least, that they are sophistocated enough not to dispute the word of a policeman nor demand a jury trial in case they get in such bad odor with the authorities as to be arrested.

Women who are tempted to cater to the vices of men who make the laws and enforce them with such impartial rigor should take to heart the moral so delicately conveyed in the treatment of Helen Costello compared to that accorded to the females who make a public advertisement of their trade. It will teach them to plunge deep or plunge not at all in the Stygian spring. Shame must not claim a rag of respectability to its name if the vigilance of the police is to be evaded. Those who pursue Mrs. Warren's profession will doubtless learn from the experience above chronicled to fear justice, even if they do not respect it, and to place no dependence in the empty guarantee of a jury trial embodied in the constitution by theorists who were never inducted into the high signs of police court jurisprudence.

The statement is going the rounds that Speaker Cannon increased his majority by 2000 votes despite the opposition of Samuel Gompers. It is a trifle inaccurate. Mr. Cannon's majority this year is 2000 more than his majority of four years ago, but 5000 less than his majority two years ago. It is just as well to keep the record straight in such matters.

Oklahoma and Indian Territory, which are to come into the Union as a single State, are estimated to have produced 1000,000 bales of cotton this season. Hence Oklahoma will have to be classed as a cotton State. By going Democratic at the recent election, it has aligned itself politically with the other cotton States. Nobody expects a State that grows a million bales of cotton a year to go Republican.

The Portland Telegram quotes one H. D. Gates, who is apparently cross-eyed as well as webfooted, as saying San Francisco shows many scars of the earthquake of last April. Gates tells the Telegram that, "in spite of the optimistic feeling displayed, there is a nervousness in regard to what the next 'quake will be like. It is this fear of the future that is keeping outside money from coming into San Francisco. At the same time, little can be done without outside money."

This is merely a sample of what foolish people say about San Francisco. It is needless to say that there are few earthquake effects visible in San Francisco. There is no nervousness about the future, no apprehension of another seismic disturbance. The city is being rebuilt as rapidly as conditions will permit, the greatest energy being displayed on every side. There is an abundance of money for rebuilding, and nothing is being held back pending the arrival of outside money. This Oregon knocker does not know what he is talking about.

The Late Edward P. Colgan.

Edward P. Colgan, late State Controller, was a blacksmith by trade and worked at it till he entered politics. He held office for twenty years—four as Sheriff of Sonoma county and sixteen as State Controller—and died poor. As he never sought an office that he did not win, save when he was a tentative candidate for a gubernatorial nomination, he is to be counted as a successful politician, yet his life was one of unremitting industry and care, and its close leaves his family, not strictly poor or uncomfortable, but without the means which constitute a competence in our day and the conditions under which we live in this State. Had he let politics alone and stuck to his blacksmithing, Mr. Colgan, who possessed much business talent, would probably have left a fortune several times as large as the value of his present estate.

We have here a striking proof that the profession of politics is not a profitable one in the financial sense. Nevertheless, men like Edward P. Colgan are indispensable in the public service. The value of Mr. Colgan's services to the people of California cannot be computed. He fought off many illegal claims aggregating many hundreds of thousands of dollars. He was a good fellow socially and a stout partisan politically, but neither friendship nor political pressure could induce him to approve of questionable claims. During his first and second terms he was in constant litigation in his efforts to protect the public treasury. As his position was uniformly sustained by the courts, the integrity of neither his motives nor his acts could ever be questioned. Indeed, the rectitude of Mr. Colgan was never assailed.

The State loses an admirable official and his friends a warm-hearted, genial companion by his death. All Edward P. Colgan's instincts were kindly and generous. But while he loved his friends he would not do wrong to serve them. With his own money he was liberality itself. The State's money he would let no one have unless it was his honestly and legally. This was demonstrated so often that of late years he was little troubled with questionable claims. When men came to know that he could neither be persuaded nor corrupted they desisted from attempts to raid the treasury.

Mr. Colgan had been elected to a fifth term, which would have begun next January, hence his successor, whom the Governor will appoint, will serve for less than two months, and will then be succeeded by another appointee. It is to be hoped that the new Controller will be as good a man and as worthy of confidence as Edward P. Colgan.

William R. Hearst announces that he will not again be a candidate for office. Mr. Hearst will be a far more influential factor in politics as a private citizen than he could possibly be as an aspirant for political honors. He will be freer-handed and unhampered by affiliations inevitable in party organization which oftentimes present a man in an inconsistent light. The moment he retires from the political arena as an aspirant for office Mr. Hearst will become doubly formidable to his enemies.

BOTHERED ABOUT THE HEREAFTER.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: My apology for this is your invitation to readers to submit brief communications on timely subjects. I am not a spiritualist. I am a Christian, though not a church man. I attended the tent meeting given by Rev. William Simpson, "evangelist" and "converted infidel," last night to hear spiritualism and all alleged spiritual phenomena "exposed." Mr. Simpson announced that his authority and evidence would be confined to the Bible. He admitted as a fact interesting phenomena attributed to spirit forces, and said there was only the devil back of it. He took a big whack at the Catholic church and a little one at the Methodists. He apparently proved by the Bible that there could not be any truth in spiritualism because there are no spirits of dead humanity. He quoted from the Bible, "Their sons came to honor and they knew it not for they were dead." "How could they know it being dead?" This was the point of his evidence. His promised exposure reminded me of the Biblical account of King David, who, being grieved, "rent his garments and exposed himself." What becomes of all religions based on the immortality of the soul if Mr. Simpson proves to us there is no future life, as he attempted to do last Sunday night? Yours truly,

F. E. BIRGE.

JESSIE BUSLEY PLEASES ALL

"In the Bishop's Carriage" is Having Successful Run at the Macdonough.

Again last night Miss Jessie Busley of "In the Bishop's Carriage," was greeted with a large audience.

There is light comedy running through it, and enough of the dramatic to make the pulse beat faster. It is staged appropriately, and acted for all it is worth. What more is wanted?

This play serves to introduce Jessie Busley to Oakland as a near star, that is, she is featured on the advertising matter. Miss Busley is an attractive, pretty and lively little actress who certainly scores heartily in all her acting.

This is her first appearance in Oakland, but she will make so many friends that it will probably not be her last. Miss Jessie Busley will be seen at the Macdonough theater all this week, with a matinee Saturday and Sunday.

"STRONGHEART."

Success seems to be quite as upsetting as anything else. Robert Edeson has recently had a new annoyance. While in Chicago where he was playing "Strongheart" to the fire limits of the theater, some one about town was impersonating his, not as "Strongheart,' 'but in the proper persona. Near Powers' theater there is a large department store that employs many women as clerks. One of these, so the story goes, had a customer, who after paying the young woman some pretty compliments told her he was Robert Edeson and gave her a pass to the play. The girl presented the pass at the box office and there ran against a snag. It was the third that had come in that week and as the house was selling out for every performance, the manager became suspicious. The signature was almost identical and the description of the man tallied very well with Mr. Edeson. The actor is naturally much upset that his double should be of such a flirtatious nature, fearing, no doubt, that those who are not well acquainted with him may receive a wrong impression.

Robert Edeson will be seen at the Macdonough theater in "Strongheart" all next week, with a matinee Saturday and Sunday.

STATE OFFICIAL PASSES AWAY

Controller Edward P. Colgan Succumbs at Adler Sanatorium San Francisco.

State Controller Edward P. Colgan, one of the most widely known and highly regarded men in California, passed away at the Adler Sanatorium in San Francisco yesterday at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Colgan was born in Santa Rosa on January 10, 1856, and was educated in the public schools of that place. In his youth he learned the trade of blacksmithing and followed that calling for thirteen years. He was elected sheriff of Sonoma county in 1886, and re-elected in 1888.

Colgan was first nominated for Controller of California by the Republican State Convention at Sacramento in 1890, and he was elected to the office by a large majority. He was renominated and re-elected Controller in 1894, 1898, 1902 and 1906.

The affairs of the important office were so ably administered under his direction that no sentiment favorable to a change could be created by the politicians. In his dealings with the Legislature, the State Board of Examiners and the State Board of Equalization Colgan impressed his fellow-officers and the people with the idea that he had thoroughly mastered the duties of his position.

Under the constitution the Governor of the State is empowered to fill the vacancy. In official circles at Sacramento it is claimed that an appointment made by Governor Pardee will hold in respect to the fifth or new term.

Controller Colgan was importuned in 1904, and again at the beginning of the State campaign of this year to enter the list of Republican aspirants for the gubernatorial nomination, but he declined to become a candidate for any office other than that of Controller. He was elected for the fifth term by the largest plurality of any candidate on the ticket.

Today the casket containing the remains will be conveyed to Sacramento, where the funeral under the auspices of the State government and Masonic order will take place Friday next. The news of his death caused a profound impression in Santa Rosa. Surprise was mingled with grief, as his home community had not realized that his condition was serious.

Mrs. M. E. Colgan, the widow, Edith, Evlyn and Helen, daughters, and Ralph, the only son, survive. One sister and three brothers of the deceased reside in Santa Rosa.

Colgan was a member of the Santa Rosa Blue Lodge, Scottish Rite Chapter and Commandery of the Free and Accepted Masons, and was father of the Santa Rosa lodge of Elks. He held membership in a number of orders in the city and took a deep interest in the welfare of Santa Rosa and Sonoma county.

BOTHIN-CRAIG.

The marriage of Miss Lulu Victorine Bothin and Woodson Craig took place last evening at Trinity Episcopal Church, the Rev. Edgar F. Gee officiating.

The church was a bower of green, grasses and palm leaves and white chrysanthemums being used in profusion. A large wedding bell above the chancel was supported by the three symbolic doves. A pretty feature of the decorations was the hanging baskets of trailing ferns.

Miss Sallie Sadler, as maid of honor, was gowned in a dainty frock of heavy silk, Nile green, with touches of pink. She carried a shower of bridesmaid roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Agnes Sadler and Miss Elisa Baum, were robed in shell pink gowns and carried maidenhair ferns. Miss Bothin entered on the arm of her father, Julius C. Bothin. The wedding dress was as simple as possible, the filmy white lace made en princesse suiting the girlishness of the bride. A tulle veil caught with sprays of orange blossoms and a garland bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and tulle completed the costume. Dr. Lloyd Craig and Arthur Connelly acted as ushers, while Westley P. Craig supported his brother as best man.

An informal reception followed the ceremony at the church at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. H. J. Sadler, on Eighteenth street. Only the families, with the most intimate friends of the young couple, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig have gone south on their honeymoon and upon their return will occupy the pretty home which awaits them on Ashbury Heights, San Francisco.

N. D. G. W. TOURNAMENT.

Piedmont Parlor, No. 87, N. D. G. W., will give a prize whist tournament next Thursday evening, November 22, at Pythian Temple, Twelfth and Alice streets. The affair is in charge of the following committee: Mrs. J. Brown, chairman; Annie Phillips, Jennie Jordan, Carrie Engelhardt, Hattie Britton, Gertrude Bibber and A. Mosher, president.

This is the first whist tournament given by Piedmont Parlor for many months, owing to the fact that they were unable to get a satisfactory hall. However, they are now comfortably settled in their new home, and they hope this affair will be a great success.

Piedmont Parlor had made arrangements for a whist tournament on April 19 last, but their plans for same were shattered and the committee wishes to say that they will honor all tickets sold for same at this tournament. Many beautiful prizes for ladies and gentlemen have been donated by members, and are on exhibition in the show window of C. J. Heeseman.

It was during Miss McCalla's stay abroad that she and Mr. Stayton met in Paris and before her return to America they were engaged.

THEY BEGIN TO FIGHT TOO YOUNG

YOUNG PUGILISTS LOSE THEIR STRENGTH IN PLEASING PUBLIC.

Popular Prizefighters Though Under Thirty Are No Longer Potent.

Terry McGovern Young Corbett Eddie Hanlon Frankie Neil—formerly names to conjure with why are they not potent still? Each of these men still is in his twenties, two are just over the border line from their teens why are they old young men? These are questions which must be answered by the promoters of pugilism and the fighters themselves It is well enough to lay the blame of a fighter's decline to the primrose path and the wine cup with some of the boxers the explanation may hold good but not with all The fundamental reason is that youths fight too young before nature has had time to build up their bodies to the proper strength before they have learned to take care of the human mechanisms as they should be looked after Every one of the men named above should be in his prime in fact. Neil and Hanlon should be rounding out into ripe manhood Instead they are broken-down pugilists, not altogether physical wrecks It is true but unfit to stand the wear and strain of championship battles Each one of these men once was a world-beater each might still be champion if not now poor second-raters

M'GOVERN STARTED EARLY.

McGovern started fighting when he was 18 won the championship at 21 was defeated at 22, and became a physical wreck at 24 He is in the ring again but is far from the man he was Young Corbett began fighting at 17 won the championship at 21 lost to Jimmy Britt at 24 and after that went down hill fast and now at 26 he is only a third rater Eddie Hanlon began fighting at 15 lost to Young Corbett at 18 and since then has had no real chance to go to the top At 21 he is unable to take a drubbing, and is beaten by second raters Frankie Neil began fighting at 17, lost two fights to Eddie Hanlon and one to Harry Forbes and was whipped by Jem Bowker for the world's championship receiving heavy beatings Recently he was defeated by Attell and Harry Baker and while yet a good man his beatings have put him on the downward path All these men began fighting before they attained their growth Each must have been stunted by the heavy battles he fought Had they been able to attain their full growth and strength so that the stamina could remain with them they would be fighting with the top-notchers today

TOO MUCH DEMANDED.

In fighting as in racing the sporting public demands too much of the youngsters Horses are raced as two-year olds when they have not attained their strength By the time they are 4 to 6 years old they have broken down Harness horses are not worked out so early but the tendency is to race the youngsters as in Kentucky futurity for colts and fillies Such grand old campaigners and world's champions as Dan Patch Cresceus Major Delmar and Sweet Marie accomplished little until they were 4, 5 or 6 years old They were allowed to develop stamina Lou Dillon was raced young this year we have heard nothing of her It does not do to allow fighters or horses to grow without the proper development out they should no be allowed to fight hard battles or run heartrending races until they are able to stand the strain Bob Fitzsimmons did not fight until he was fully developed the result is that he is still the wonder of the prize ring A pugilist should not be allowed to enter an earnest fight until he has reached his majority a race horse should not be entered in an important race until it is at least 3 years old, and never should be driven out until that time

Harry Baker is the latest to begin fighting young He is but 18 years of age His body shows no signs of proper development He is hardened and fit at the present time because he has been abnormally trained to it not because he developed naturally With proper care he may last many years but the chances are that by the time he is 25 he will be all in Abe Attell is but 22 and looks older Through his methods of avoiding punishment he may last many years but the chances are that his continued early training and the knocks he cannot help receiving will cause his early decline The moment his speed and headwork falter he will be an easy mark for defeat Those interested in developing sports to their highest degree should not "force" the development of man or beast

FATAL FIGHT FOLLOWED BY ARREST

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov 21.—Frank Lynch of this city, who promoted the boxing match between Mike Ward and Harry Lewis, in which Ward met his death here last Thursday, has been arrested on a warrant charging him with making an agreement to promote a prize-fight. He pleaded not guilty before Police Judge Hess. He was held under $1000 bond to appear for examination on December 3d.

LITTLE FIGHTERS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

WALTER STANTON.

LOREN BROWN BELIEVES HE WILL TAKE REILLY'S MEASURE.

Six Hot Battles on the Dreamland Card for Friday Night.

Although Charlie Reilly managed to get a hair-line verdict over Loren Brown, the speedy little Oakland featherweight, the latter expects not only to reverse matters Friday night when the two clash a second time in Dreamland Pavilion, but is confident of stowing away his shifty adversary. Much surprise was caused by Brown's defeat at the hands of Reilly and the return match was the outcome of many discussions as to their ability with the gloves The friends of both men argued that luck was with the other fellow, and the constant rag-chewing forced the into another go

Two other popular local boxers are doing their training on this side of the bay for bouts on the same evening. Frankie Edwards, the speedy lightweight, and Harry League, who also is in the same class, have hard fights on and are not losing any time getting in perfect trim The former has a tough customer to plant a haymaker on in Jack Rodney, the Ocean View mixer, while League meets one of the gamest and toughest fighters to defeat that ever walked on two legs in Iron Man Charlie Dunn. Charlie is like a bulldog The more he is chewed up the more determined he becomes and wades into the thickest of the fray looking for trouble

Walter Stanton is already right on edge, but is busily occupied at Point Richmond in topping off his preparatory work. He came out of the Murray fight without a scratch, but in Frank Mayfield he will be obliged to do stiffer and more scientific fighting to avoid having his frontispiece battered

SWEET MARIE, TROTTER AND STAR OF MANY CONTESTS, HAS STRANGE HISTORY

SHOWED PECULIAR TRAITS JUST LIKE HUMAN GENIUSES

LEXINGTON, Ky, Nov 21—Sweet Marie, the mare that has surprised the trotting world by her feats to the sulky, has her peculiar traits of character just like human geniuses.

She sleeps standing up Harry Williams, Sweet Marie's hostler, sleeps in the stall with her every night and watches over her When she wants her breakfast she shakes her groom to rouse him She does not like strangers and will show her displeasure by throwing back her ears She wants to be alone In the blacksmith shop she is quiet only while Harry or Driver A P McDonald are with her

Sweet Marie travels in style, having a retinue of servants and the best of accommodations She is given a full section in the car, which is well padded and bedded 'Sweet Marie, you know, takes more room than some stars" said Harry In fact, she requires lots of room She is 16 hands Major Delmar was 15 3 She is not only tall, but broad "She is steady on her feet, with the best set of nerves you ever saw,' said Mr. McDonald "She is not easily excited, and scares at nothing She has traveled much this year and was never off her feed, giving evidence of the greatest enjoyment in her travels"

Strange is the early history of Sweet Marie. She was foaled, the property of a negro gardener, in the suburbs of Los Angeles, Cal. Her dam, Lady Rivers, a daughter of Carr's Membrino, objected to being driven, and one day kicked to splinters the market wagon of her owner, Frank Shoemaker, who ran a little hotel He sold her on the spot Her purchaser, the negro, paid $30 in cash and contracted to haul the garbage away from the hotel for one year. The mare had been bred to McKinley, but this made no difference to her owner. He might have given her away if the negro had not purchased. After she had been half starved and hacked about a while, Lady Rivers was so gentle that the old negro's wife drove her to market "with one line."

Her filly was a fine one, and was trained by a negro friend of the owner as a three-year old. She showed speed, and Milo M. Potter, a member of the Los Angeles Driving Club, bought her for $500. When Sweet Marie was 5 years old Potter started her a number of times getting a record of 2 13¼ with her. Potter sold his stable of horses at auction. William Garland, railway contractor and capitalist of Los Angeles, her present owner, bought Sweet Marie for $3,150. He drove her in matinees She beat all comers, pacers included. Mr Garland giving her an unprofessional record of 2 00¼. She was now the talk of California. She was first campaigned in the far Northwest. Mr. Garland being importuned to allow her to enter professional racing finally did so in 1903.

SWEET MARIE'S RECORDS.

Sweet Marie holds more championship race records than three of the best trotters put together, and had it not been for the windshield record of Lou Dillon, 1.58½, she would have been entitled to several more than she is holding now

The world's champion mare.
Winner of the fastest heat.
Winner of the fastest second and third heats.
Winner of the fastest two-heat race.
The world's fastest trotter without the help of a windshield
Winner of the fastest dead heat.

HARNESS RACE IS WON ON FORM

LOS ANGELES Nov 21— A small but enthusiastic crowd witnessed good light-harness racing at Agricultural Park yesterday afternoon The two harness events were won on form, as Queer Knight and Mollie Button were the favorites and easily took their events in straight heats In the second heat Queer Knight faltered and it looked for an instant as if Burnut was going to take a heat but the queer one came rapidly, and won in a flashy manner

The running races were very popular and attracted much attention from those who braved the cold wind to witness today's sport. Jack Kircheville developed a great burst of speed in the first running event and came near winning from Beautiful and Best Summaries

PITCHER DOES WONDERS WITH THREE FINGERS

"Mordecai Brown made the National leaguers look like bush leaguers. And he did it with only three fingers; what would he do if he had four?"

Just what the great Chicago National pitcher could do with four fingers is what many followers of the game are wondering. Brown, himself, however, makes the startling statement that he could not pitch as well.

The loss of his one finger gives him a wider stretch for his other fingers, and thereby permits him to grip the ball more firmly than the average hand is able to grasp it.

Brown is the sensation of baseball this year. He is to the season of 1906 what Christy Mathewson was to last year.

Brown's work has aroused other interesting comment on the hands of ball players.

It is not generally known, but there is a man on the Detroit team crippled in the same way. He is Captain Bill Coughlin. The forefinger of Coughlin's left hand is gone, and yet it is with that hand that he makes those sensational stops that have won him a position this year by the side of Bill Bradley and Jimmy Collins as a third baseman.

Bill Bradley is probably the better all round third baseman. He can hit better and is smoother in getting in after bunts. Jimmy Collins in his best days was probably a flashier and more spectacular player. But on real hard work no one at third has it on Coughlin. No man knocks down the line drives that look good when they start for extra bases the way he does.

And yet he has but three fingers.

Baseball players' hands afford an interesting study. Some are harder than the molder's or farmer's hands. Others are soft as a woman's.

Coughlin's hands are as hard as wood, and he has a grip of iron

It is all in the way the player takes the ball. The reason some players are invariably hurt or have lame hands is because they fight the ball. They do not know how to handle a hot grounder, or, rather, cannot acquire the knack of handling it so that it will not hurt them.

Charlie Carr, whose disposition prevented him from being one of the best first basemen of the American league, probably has the knack of handling a hard thrown ball or a drive from the bat down to a finer point than any other player.

To shake his hand one would think him a ribbon counter clerk. When an infielder threw a man out at first Carr would reach for the ball. As soon as the ball touched his hands he drew his arms back, so that the ball stopped gradually.

Kid Elberfeld fights the ball and gets away with it just about as well as any other player.

He comes in after every infield hit and snatches it up. You never see the "Kid" waiting for a ball to come to him. He goes right after it, spears it, and throws his man out. Ofttimes, if he waited for it, the runner would be safe. If Charley O'Leary of Detroit would come in faster he would be a greater shortstop

Elberfeld, however has the trick of fighting the ball, and yet giving just so much with it that he does not hurt himself greatly. His hands, from his long years at play, are seared and calloused

The outfielder's hands are usually soft, and a pitcher's hands do not need to be hard. George Mullin, in good form, has probably the best curved ball in the game, and yet his hands are comparatively soft.

The catchers are the real men to suffer Jack Warner's fingers are as gnarled and twisted from fast shoots as those of Charlie Bennett, who played in the days when there were no mits to protect a man.

The third baseman, catcher and shortstop really have the most work to do with their fingers. And as a general rule their hands show it.

SUBSTITUTES IN RING AT WEST OAKLAND

ONLY ONE BATTLE CARRIED OUT ACCORDING TO PROGRAMME.

Big Crowd, However, Sees Several Good Fights and One Frame Up.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

A large and enthusiastic crowd gathered last night at the West Oakland club to witness the six four-round contests that the club had billed. Only one of the six contests came off as carded, however, and the club's matchmaker was forced to use substitutes in each of the other five bouts. The blame can hardly be laid on the matchmaker and officials of the club, however for they used every effort to run the show as it had been advertised. It was simply a case of hard luck. Matchmaker Tommy Simpson said last night after the show that he had visited each of the contestants during the past week and each had assured him that he was in good condition and would be on hand the night of the contests.

The greatest disappointment was the falling through of the main and special events. Harry Williams of San Francisco, who has always been a willing and consistent performer, failed to put in an appearance for his scheduled bout with Dick Murray, and Eddie Mensor, after being passed favorably upon by the club's physician, as to his physical fitness to take part in a boxing contest, donned his fighting togs and apparently was ready to go on with Frank Mejia. His seconds were all ready with bucket and towels in hand, when Mensor, after putting on his sweater, trousers and coat, said he did not feel well, and went downstairs, saying he would be back in time to go on. He failed to put in an appearance, however, and his seconds, after waiting some time, announced that they could not find him, and the club was forced to put Tommy Taylor on in his place.

MUST PUT UP $50.

Mejia has trained four times for a contest with Menser, and each time has been disappointed. He now says that if Mensor ever again wants a match with him he will have to post a $50 forfeit. Mensor has disappointed the spectators several times before, both at the Reliance and West Oakland clubs and he will have to post a very substantial forfeit before he is matched by either club in the future. It seems a little harsh to say that Eddie is a cold-foot fighter, but his moment leaves only one impression, and that is that he lacks the courage of meeting a formidable opponent, or one that he believes has an equal chance for victory.

The first three contests of the night resulted in swingfests, the contestants' arms flying around like windmills, each of the six contestants berepeatedly running out at the last ing yet in the primary grades of pugilism.

The show was opened by Kid Alameda and Young Casey. Alameda was the heavier of the two by eight or ten pounds. The pair mixed things from the jump and, although Alameda looked a winner all the way, Casey, by gamely rushing and swinging at his larger opponent, at times made things interesting for the Kid. Weight was too much for him to overcome, however, in a match where science was unknown to either and, as the handicap made it apparent that Casey had no chance. Simpson put a stop to the bout and declared Alameda the winner.

FREEMAN VS. YOUNG.

Roy Freeman and B. Young were next to enter the ring. Freeman was much the lighter man and the weight of his opponent tired him considerably. Freeman proved a game youngster however and kept coming and landing all through the contest. Young showed an inclination to stop all during the four rounds and Freeman was given the decision. The crowd seemed delighted with the ending, as Young had entered the ring with a swagger that displeased the crowd.

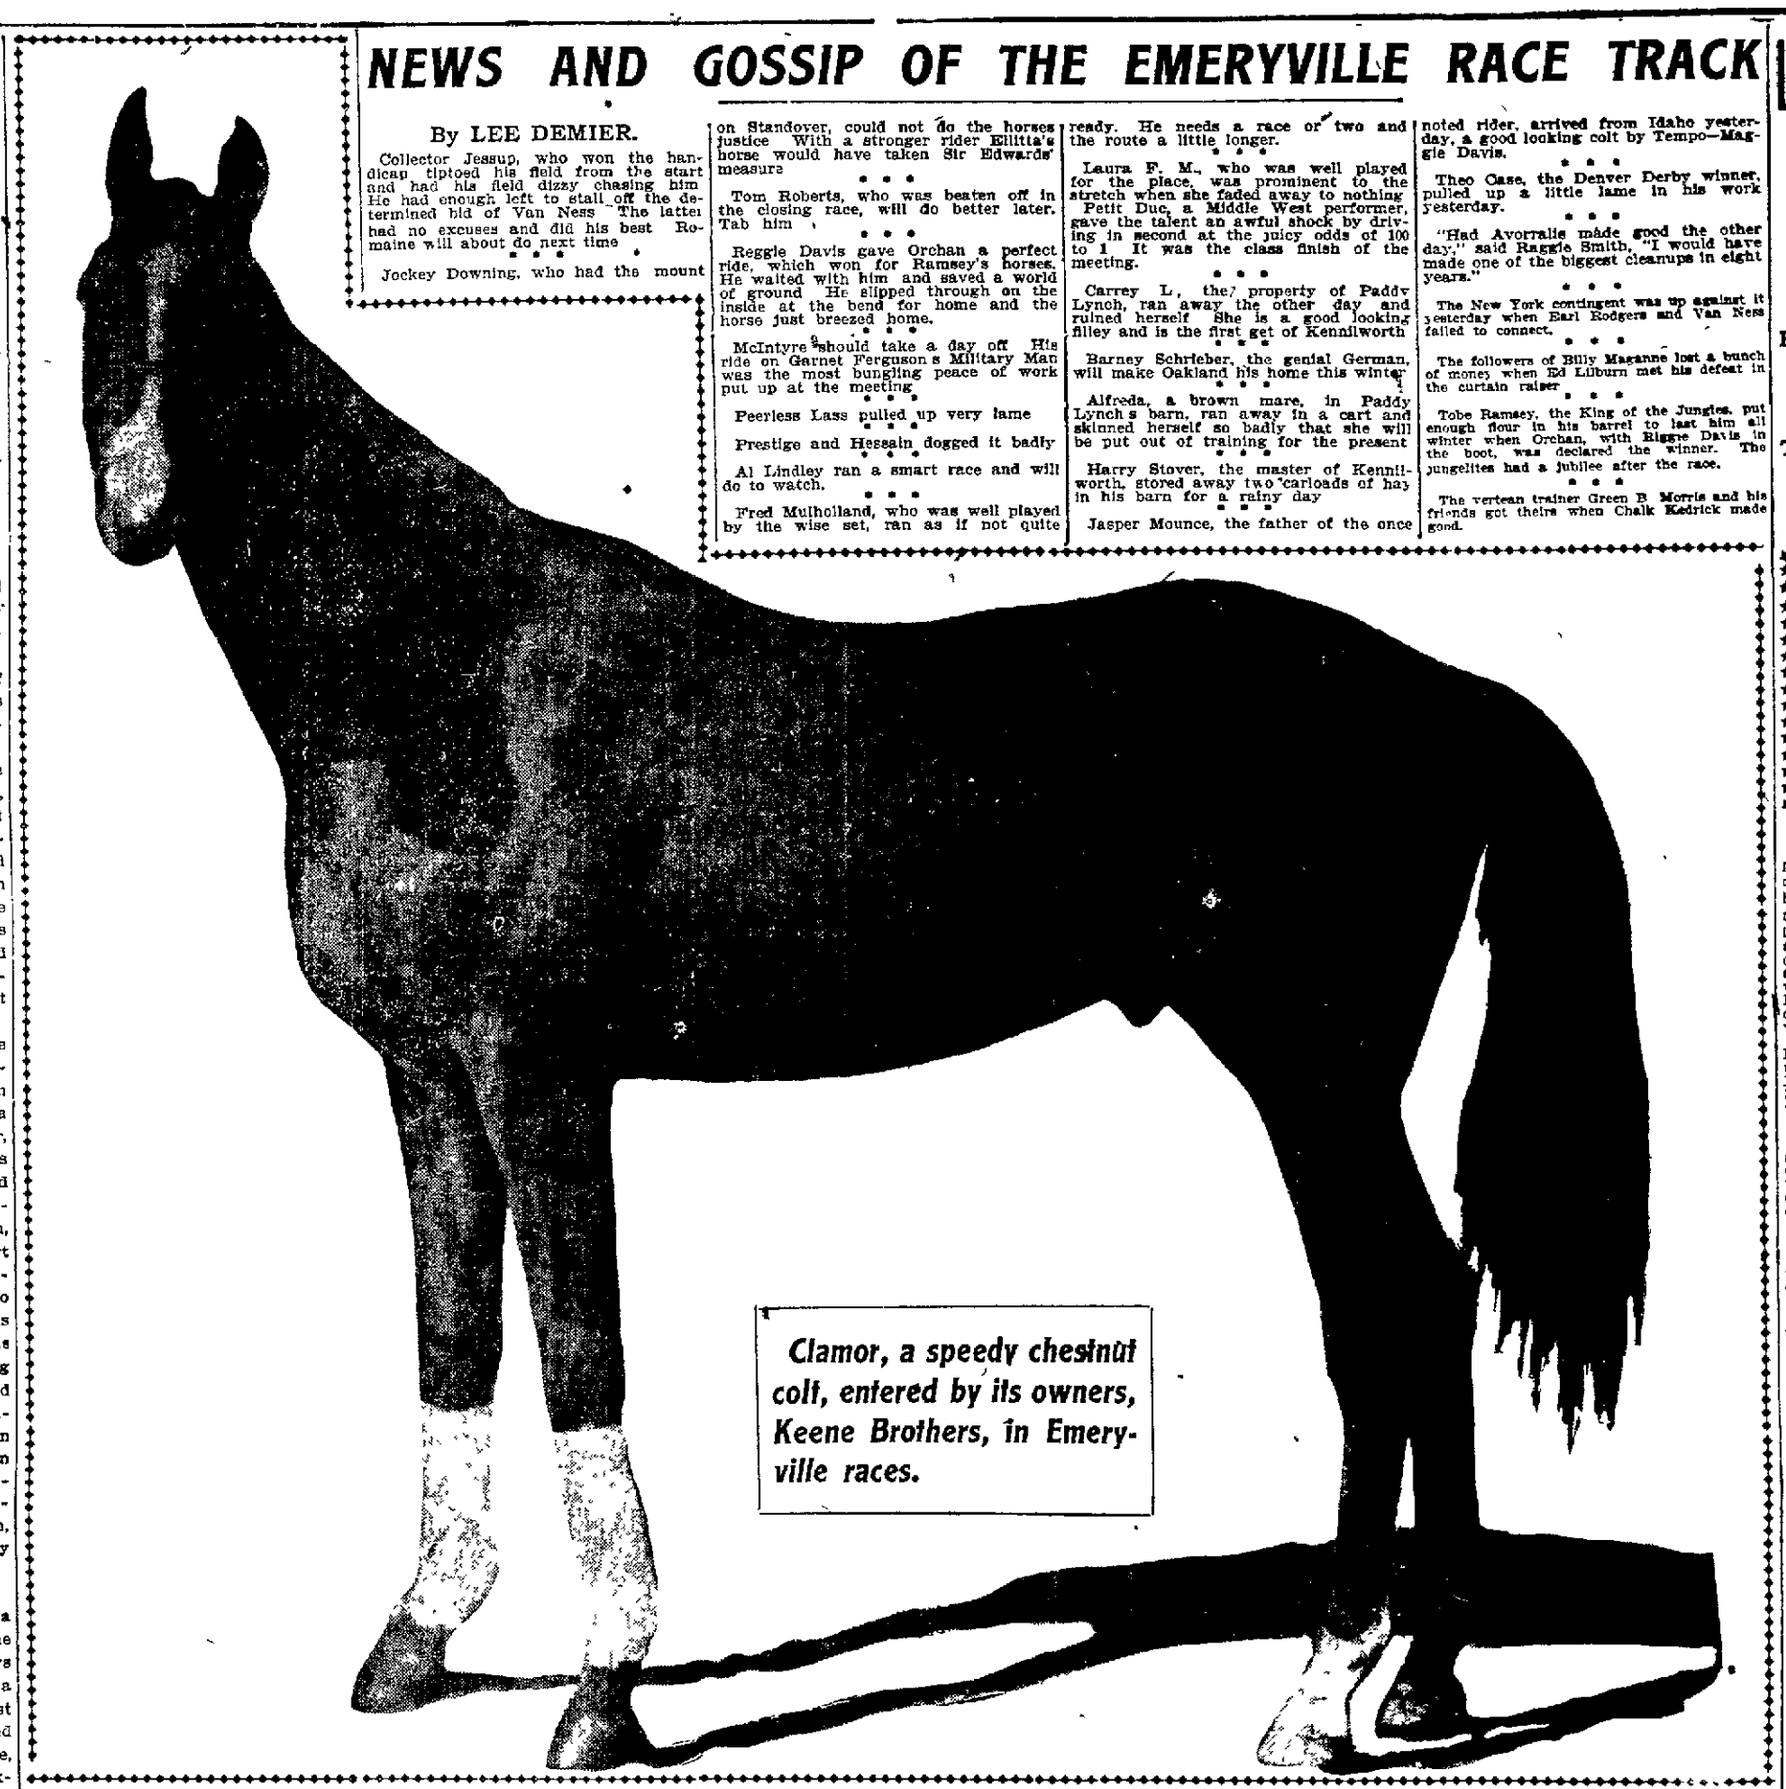

Young Kelly and Hop Lee furnished the fun for the fourth event. Each has considerable to learn, in fact it is hard to imagine how Hop Lee, being in the game as long as he has, can know so little about it. Kelly was the aggressor all through the four rounds, but at the end became tired, and Lee, with a rush or two, secured a draw.

FOURTH A DISGRACE.

The fourth event was the most disgraceful affair of the night. Frankie Edwards, who has in the past had a good reputation in Oakland and San Francisco, was matched with Young Dempsey, also known as "Dutch" Omerad. The Oakland fans long ago became disgusted with Dempsey as he is a hoodlum and saloon fighter, who spends half his time in jail, where he belongs. But when Edwards was put on with him they felt that he would not stoop to framing up with Dempsey. The contest from the start was a rank affair and before it had gone one minute, the crowd howled "throw them out." In the third round Dempsey laid down and referee Simpson properly declared the affair no contest.

Dick Murray and Tom Burns, who was substituted for Harry Williams, appeared for the fifth event. The men agreed that if both men were on their feet at the end of the four rounds, the contest would be declared a draw. The sorrel-topped fighter went right after Burns, determined to win if possible, and after a few passes in which neither man was hurt, Murray, with a long right swing, knocked Burns down and out.

Frank Mejia and Tommy Taylor met in the last event of the night. Taylor went on at short notice, taking Eddie Mensor's place, and was not in the best of condition. He fought gamely, however and although Mejia no doubt had the better of the contest, many would like to have seen Taylor get a draw as a reward for his game fight. George Simpson acted as referee and Charles Kelly and Tom Gallagher acted as judges.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE EMERYVILLE RACE TRACK

By LEE DEMIER.

Collector Jessup, who won the handicap tiptoed his field from the start and had his field dizzy chasing him. He had enough left to stall off the determined bid of Van Ness. The latter had no excuses and did his best. Romaine will about do next time.

Jockey Downing, who had the mount on Standover, could not do the horses justice. With a stronger rider Elitta's horse would have taken Sir Edwards' measure.

Tom Roberts, who was beaten off in the closing race, will do better later. Tab him.

Reggie Davis gave Orchan a perfect ride, which won for Ramsey's horses. He waited with him and saved a world of ground. He slipped through on the inside at the bend for home and the horse just breezed home.

McIntyre should take a day off. His ride on Garnet Ferguson's Military Man was the most bungling peace of work put up at the meeting.

Peerless Lass pulled up very lame.

Prestige and Hessain dogged it badly.

Al Lindley ran a smart race and will do to watch.

Fred Mulholland, who was well played by the wise set, ran as if not quite ready. He needs a race or two and the route a little longer.

Laura F. M., who was well played for the place, was prominent to the stretch when she faded away to nothing.

Petit Duc, a Middle West performer, gave the talent an awful shock by driving in second at the juicy odds of 100 to 1. It was the class finish of the meeting.

Carrey L., the property of Paddy Lynch, ran away the other day and ruined herself. She is a good looking filley and is the first get of Kennilworth.

Barney Schrieber, the genial German, will make Oakland his home this winter.

Alfreda, a brown mare, in Paddy Lynch's barn, ran away in a cart and skinned herself so badly that she will be put out of training for the present.

Harry Stover, the master of Kennilworth, stored away two carloads of hay in his barn for a rainy day.

Jasper Mounce, the father of the once noted rider, arrived from Idaho yesterday, a good looking colt by Tempo—Maggie Davis.

Theo Case, the Denver Derby winner, pulled up a little lame in his work yesterday.

"Had Avorralis made good the other day," said Raggie Smith, "I would have made one of the biggest cleanups in eight years."

* * *

The New York contingent was up against it yesterday when Earl Rodgers and Van Ness failed to connect.

The followers of Billy Maganne lost a bunch of money when Ed Lilburn met his defeat in the curtain raiser.

Tobe Ramsey, the King of the Jungles, put enough flour in his barrel to last him all winter when Orchan, with Riggie Davis in the boot, was declared the winner. The jungelites had a jubilee after the race.

* * *

The vertean trainer Green B. Morris and his friends got theirs when Chalk Kedrick made good.

Sir Edward, Standover, I'm Joe. Time, 1:40 3-5.

The prevalence of fair weather, accompanied by hazy atmosphere, was conducive to enthusiastic racing, and the hardy regulars who ventured forth made things lively for the twenty-three bookies doing business at Emeryville racetrack. The card presented was a good one and fairly beamed with equinine good things. From a betting standpoint, as well as a contest the running of the Firenze handicap was the feature of the day's sport. Several of the contestants were well liked and backed accordingly.

The colors of President Thomas William were seen yesterday afternoon for the first time since the days of the old Bay District track when his brown colt by Eddie Jones went to the post in the third race.

FIRST RACE.

Tobe Ramsey, the "King of the Jungles," put a good third over, when Orchan won the first race of the day from the long shott Metlakatla. The latter dropped from the clouds. Madden just did beat Ed Lilburn, the favorite, for third position. Time, 1:37 3-5.

SECOND RACE.

Green B. Morris' four-year-old gelding Chalk Hedrick took the second race in a hard drive from Petit Duc, who was quoted at 100 to 1 in the betting. Military Man was badly messed about but grabbed show money from Earl Rogers. Time, 1:21 3-5.

THIRD RACE.

The talent received an awful jolt when Fred Mulholland, the heavily backed favorite in the second race, was beaten by the 15 to 1 shot, Ocean Shore. The winner tiptoed her field all the way, winning pulled up, by six lengths. Al Lindley came like the wind and got the show. Time, 1:01 2-5.

FOURTH RACE.

A number of old-time favorites from the sprinting division raced the starter this event, and interest was materially enhanced by the presence of two Eastern celebrities named Van Ness and Platoon. Princess Titania was backed into favoritism, but Platoon carried the most money. This pair, however, was never in the hunt. The winner turned up in Collector Jessup, against whose chances the ring laid 10 to 1. He went to the post practically unbacked by his stable, but did not fail to collect the coin. He practically forced the pace from the start and won like breaking sticks from Van Ness, Romaine and Platoon, who finished in the order named. Time, 1:10 2-5.

FIFTH RACE.

Benvolio, a performer from the Middle West, took the lead in the stretch and won as he pleased from the favorite, Lazell, who simply could not get up. Lone Wolf ran a good race to be third. Time, 1:41 3-5.

SIXTH RACE.

Sir Edward, the top-heavy choice, won the final race. Standover got the place from I'm Joe. Time, 1:40 3-5.

CARRANZA IS VICTOR OVER BURKE

Beans Carranza, of Watsonville, knocked Jack Burke of Sacramento, out in one round at Eureka Saturday night. Burke claims it was a chance punch that did the business and has asked the club to rematch him with the fighter from the sugar beet country. ## BATTLE ROYAL OF GOOD OLD AMERICAN FOOTBALL SLATED FOR THE BERRYMAN GRIDIRON

Springfields and Scenics Will Clash in Their Annual Contest---Many Players Who Will Make Brilliant Records on College and Prep School Elevens Will Be in the Line-Ups, Which Are Unusually Strong.

The football enthusiasts of Berkeley are looking forward to Thanksgiving with keen interest for on that day one of the biggest games of the season takes place on Berryman Field. Berkeley's leading club teams, the Springfields and the Scenics, meet in their annual game, and from all appearances the game will be a battle royal from beginning to end.

The Springfield-Scenic annual football game has been an event in Berkeley for the last ten years, and about this time of the year arouses great interest among the Berkeleyans. As this year's contest is the only "American" game of football of importance to be played on a local gridiron this fall, intense enthusiasm is being manifested in the annual match. All along the line nothing but the game is being discussed, and it is predicted that one of the greatest assemblages in the history of Berkeley will witness the battle.

Both elevens will present strong line-ups. Many players who have made enviable football reputations for themselves on college and prep-school teams will be seen in action. The Scenic Club particularly is fortunate in having many brilliant performers. Melnotte Peck, Al Solinsky and Roy Miller, all of whom were stars on last year's champion Berkeley high team, will play under the colors of the Scenic Club. Merritt, Stearns, Henry, Witcher, Barnett and McCarthy, all prominent and well known college and high school players, will help win the annual game for the Scenic Club. Mackie, who has played on the Scenic eleven the last five years, will have the honor of captaining this aggregation of stars.

Springfield also will have some capable and brilliant players on the team. Duggan, Berkeley High's former crack tackle, will defend this position for Springfield. Duggan created a sensation in football circles when he was attending high school, by his wonderful place kicking, and he soon gained the reputation of being the peer of all the kickers on the coast. Matthews, the idol of the local high school last year, and the man selected to play the position of half-back on the All-Academic team, will be seen in action as a member of the Springfield club. Farrar, the hero of last year's desperately fought contest, and a former Berkeley high star, will once again guide the destinies of the Springfield Club.

Others of prominence who will be in the line-up will be Haines, Laird, Hartley and Munro, all members of the high school team of this year. Demeritt, Siedel and Mincher, who are old Springfield players, will also take part in the big game.

ACADEMY LADS DEFEAT ST. PATRICKS

The first team of St. Joseph's academy, Peralta Park, again defeated the crack team from St. Patrick's school, West Oakland in a hotly contested game. For six innings neither side scored.

In the seventh inning Cooney, of the Academy team, brought in two runs on a long drive out to center. Neither side scored till the ninth, when the Academy boys bunched hits, making four runs, while their opponents scored on run to their favor.

Cooney, of the Academy team, pitched a fine game sending ten men to the bench by the three strike route.

This is the sixth straight game for the boys from Berkeley. Heavy teams have bowed before these youngsters. The Midgets from St. Mary's College were one of the latest to be defeated.

The Young Academics would like to hear from any team under 14 years.

The line up: Mohler, shortstop; Torres, center field; Cooney, captain and pitcher, Myers, second base; Warrack, third base; Wilson, left field, Haines, first base, Van de Naillen, catcher, Cunningham, right field.

The third team or Eagles of St. Joseph's Academy, defeated a team from West Oakland by a score of 8 to 9.

ASSOCIATION TEAM SEEK CUP

It was a sad day for outsiders Sunday, when the teams from up country and from across the bay met the two doughty Oakland elevens in the California Association Football League contest.

That the Oakland Hornets should thrash the San Franciscos was not so much of a surprise, because the Hornets had an unbroken series of victories in the league competition last season, but the smashing of four goals to one administered the Independents of Pinole, thrice winners of the Union cup, by the Albion Rovers of Oakland, caused decided astonishment.

Moore has been working quietly but hard, for several months and has gathered together a formidable bunch of strong youths having a thorough knowledge of the game.

If, in addition to beating the cup game champions they can also beat the Hornets, who were last season's league champions, they will probably sweep the whole league series.

As they are scheduled to meet the Hornets in Freeman's park Sunday, the followers of Association football have not long to wait for a decision.

HERMAN IS ON HIS WAY WEST

TONOPAH, Nov. 21.—Manager Riley of the Casino Athletic Club has received a telegram from Herman saying that he would start for Tonopah with his sparring partner on the overland this morning. Selig, manager for Gans also wired that he would be here when Herman arrives to look out for the champion's interests.

Work will commence on the arena within a few days at a cost of $40,000. Half the roof is to be of glass, the structure to be along permanent lines. The local club is in the fight game to stay, and will endeavor to hold three or four championship bouts each year on big holidays. The club is heavily backed, and will try to make Tonopah the center of the fight game from now on. Citizens here are enthusiastic over the prospects for the coming fight, and are working to make the affair a big success.

AGAIN LOOKS DARK FOR ASCOT

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—The City Council, canvassing the recent annexation election returns, certified that the vote as returned by the election officials of the various precincts was correct, and that a majority had voted in favor of the annexation to this city of the narrow strip of land reaching to San Pedro. This strip includes Ascot Park and makes the race track a part of the city and subject to the ordinance prohibiting betting on races.

The Council decided that the returns of Green Meadow precinct, which yesterday gave evidence of having been tampered with, were not invalidated. Counsel, supposedly representing Ascot, had tried to have the returns of this precinct thrown out on the ground that the seal of the envelope containing the ballots had been broken.

It is expected that the Los Angeles Jockey Club will make still further efforts to prevent the annexation being consummated, and it is said that they will attempt to enjoin the municipality from proceeding in the matter.

MENSOR WANTS TO FIGHT MEJIA

Eddie Mensor has given out an explanation of his non-appearance in the ring at the West Oakland fights Tuesday night to fight Frank Mejia. The fighter states that after he had weighed in and donned his fighting togs he was taken suddenly ill and was in no condition to go on.

Mensor says he will fight Mejia and post a forfeit for weight and appearance.

FEW ENTRIES IN SWIMMING TOURNEY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Although the semi-annual swimming tournament of the Academic Athletic League next Friday evening will be featured by the swimming of Tom Laine of Lowell and George Bromley of Lick, the affair as a whole will lack the usual interest shown these meets, for the number of entries is very small. In the 100-yard dash Bromley, who holds the record of 1:07 3-5 will win handily, and should also win the furlong, although he will be closely pressed by McWood of the Polytechnic. Bromley's record of 3:03 3-5 is not expected to be broken. In the 880 and 440 yard dashes, Tom Laine of Lowell, the record holder of the former event, should have things his own way. His closest competitor is H. Maxwell of the Polytechnic High School. Myer of Poly and Elliott of Oakland are not known. The third entry in the 220 is Ditterly. He is a good swimmer, but hardly classes with Bromley or McWood. In the 880-yard dash the two entries not already mentioned are Craig of Oakland and Smith of Lowell. The latter will press Maxwell in the race. The races begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Official Indicted for Perjury Surrenders to Sheriff and Remains in Custody Pending Bail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Peter J. Duffy, the watchman indicted by the grand jury for perjury, surrendered himself to Sheriff O'Neil today while Deputy Knox was still looking for him. An effort was made to find Duffy last night, but the officers say he did not return to his home. Deputy Knox resumed the search this morning, but Duffy was ahead of him and went direct to the Sheriff's office where he remained until Deputy Knox was recalled. There the warrant of arrest was read to him and with his bondsmen he was taken to Judge Murasky's courtroom so the bondsmen could qualify.

The indictment charges Duffy with swearing falsely at the inquiry which resulted in the accusation against Supervisor Nicholas.

Up to a late hour this afternoon Duffy was still in custody of the Sheriff, having failed to secure $2500 cash bail and $5000 bonds for his release.

WARRANT SERVED ON GRAFT SUSPECT IN BED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Supervisor Frederick P. Nicholas and Peter M. Duffy, the former city hall janitor, who acted as a middle man in the municipal furniture graft, joined the discredited political company of Abe Ruef and Eugene Schmitz yesterday by being indicted by the grand jury.

Nicholas was indicted for entering into an agreement to receive a bribe and Duffy for perjury.

Superior Judge Frank J Murasky fixed the bond in each case at $5000.

Nicholas surrendered himself last night and was released on $2500 cash bail, furnished by County Clerk Harry I Mulcrevy. He was represented during the proceedings by his counsel, George Appell.

Duffy was found in bed at midnight and professed ignorance of his indictment. He said he would surrender himself this morning.

Both indictments were expected. They came at the end of a day that was taken up with the hearing of a great bulk of testimony by the grand jury and in many respects are indicative of the attitude and determination of that body.

The specific charge against Nicholas is that he "willfully, unlawfully, feloniously and corruptly" agreed with J. A. Holmes to receive a bribe of $26.10 in return for his vote as chairman of the committee on public buildings of the Board of Supervisors in favor of a bill of $261 for furniture supplied for municipal purposes.

As chairman of the committee of public buildings, Nicholas had supervision of all the furniture bought for the city, and the charge brought against him in the indictment represents but a small part of the graft in which Prosecutor Heney intends to involve him and other members of the board of supervisors.

According to evidence amassed by Special Agent William Burns, Nicholas collected a commission of 10 per cent on all furniture sold to the city, and the graft is said to have reached after the fire and earthquake, it is pointed out by the prosecutors, nearly every municipal office in the city had to be supplied with new furniture. Heney believes that at least $100,000 worth of furniture was sold to the city at the time, and that the graft on this item alone reached at least $10,000.

BURNED BABIES IN STOVE; WOMAN FIEND INCARNATE

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The spectacle of two women denouncing as a murderess the woman who brought them into the world, but whom they refused to call "mother" was witnessed in the office of District Attorney Jerome today. The women are Mrs. Wilhelmina Ihrig, of this city, and Mrs. Marie Seoch. The mother whom they accused is Mrs. Wilhelmina Eckhardt, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of having performed an illegal operation. Both Mrs. Ihrig and Mrs. Seoch asserted that they did not wish to be known as the daughters of Mrs. Eckhardt, who, they said is not worthy to bear the name "mother."

Both declared they had seen Mrs. Eckhardt kill hour-old infants and dispose of the bodies by burning them in her kitchen stove. They said also that they had seen Mrs. Eckhardt perform criminal operations upon women in her East Ninety-third street home, and Mrs. Ihrig declared that her mother had quarreled with her because she refused to assist in burning the bodies of babies.

Mrs. Seoch told the District Attorney that when she was three days old her mother wrapped her in a bundle of rags and cast her into the street. She was rescued by her grandmother, who reared her.

STREET LIGHTS ARE ORDERED

The contention of R D Holmes, secretary of the Retail Grocers and Merchants' Association, that the absence of lights on East Fourteenth street, between Fourth and Tenth avenues, in East Oakland, had as a result many hold-ups, had its effect on the Board of Public Works this morning and street lights were ordered placed at the corners of Sixth and Eighth avenues and East Fourteenth street. City Electrician Babcock also recommended the placing of the lights at the above corners saying that the street was very dark.

Holmes said in part, in his communication.

"Some two weeks ago a lady was stood up by a footpad at the corner of Eighth avenue and Fourteenth street at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, and although the writer was within one hundred feet from where the attack took place, he was not advised of anything wrong until he heard the lady scream. The footpad then made off in the darkness and it was impossible to get any trace of him."

The electric light fund has reached its limit and the board fears that it will have to refuse to grant permission for the erection of any more street lights or electroliers.

Many merchants are repeatedly asking for permission to erect electroliers but the board believes that it will have to refuse to grant such permission, owing to the lack of funds.

The city pays for the power used by the lights and the merchants all over the city are planning to erect lights under this condition.

BOLD ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL

A bold attempt to break jail was discovered yesterday by Jailer Peter L. White of the Alameda County jail. William Bennett and James Smith, two desperate men who are being held over to await a trial before the Superior Court, used pocket knives made like files, and were using these instruments to cut their way to freedom.

Last Monday, when a teamster brought some goods to the jail Jailer White thought he heard a scraping noise while in the rear of the jail showing the dray man where to place the freight. The prisoners immediately put their tools under cover to not attract attention. A careful watch was maintained on the two inmate, but they were too sly to be caught. Yesterday Jailer White demanded them to surrender the knives, but they proclaimed innocence and knew nothing.

Their cell was then searched, and the knives found.

Sheriff Frank Barnet this morning revoked the appointment of Deputy Sheriff John R. Swift of Fruitvale because he exceeded his authority in serving civil papers when he was merely required to do police duty.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts ? These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention.

Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some derangement of the organs Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the best judges agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for woman's ills known to medicine

Read the convincing testimonials of Mrs Holmes and Mrs. Cotrely.

Mrs J.C Holmes, of Larimore, North Dakota, writes:

Dear Mrs Pinkham,—

"I have suffered everything with backache and female trouble—I let the trouble run on until my system was in such a condition that I was unable to be about, and then it was I commenced to use Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound If I had only known how much suffering I would have saved I should have taken it months sooner—for a few weeks treatment made me well and strong My backaches and headaches are all gone and I suffer no pain at my monthly periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain"

Mrs Emma Cotrely, 109 East 13th Street, New York City, writes.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham —

"I feel it my duty to tell all suffering women of the relief I have found in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I commenced taking the Compound I suffered everything with backaches, headaches, and female troubles. I am completely cured and enjoy the best of health, and I owe it all to you."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacements or ulceration, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the female organs, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all gone" and "want to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles No other medicine in the world has received this widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse to buy any substitute.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Remember, every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely and cheerfully given to every ailing woman who asks for it Her advice and medicine have restored to health innumerable women Address, Lynn, Mass.

HILL'S ROADS UNDER FIRE

Three Great Railways Dominated by J. J. Hill Will be Investigated by Commission.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The Tribune today says:

James J Hill and the three great railroads he dominates are to be investigated by the Interstate Commerce Commission What are the relations between the Great Northern, the Northern Pacific and the Burlington systems? An effort is to be made to find out.

The commission will seek to ascertain what effect the control of all these lines by one man has had and is having on rates in the northwest, and consequently upon the agricultural and industrial development of that section

The result will be to bring out the facts regarding what has taken place in the northwestern railroad situation since the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Northern Securities case in 1904 and to show what effects the decision has produced and to what extent its intent has been nullified.

The Northern Securieties proceeding was preceded by an investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission and it is understood that the evidence secured at the investigation of the Hill and Harriman lines like that secured before the Northern Securities proceeding will be turned over to the Federal department of justice to be used in actions under the anti-trust law, if such actions shall be considered to be justified by the conditions

SHE IS GIVEN HER LIBERTY

Helen Costello, Accused of Vagrancy, Rescued by Sister and Is Discharged.

Because her sister, Mrs. Angie Wright of San Francisco, appealed for her release and promised to take her across the bay to her home, Mrs Helen Costello, the nineteen-year-old girl who was charged with vagrancy by the police, was given her freedom by Police Judge Samuels yesterday.

It was alleged that Mrs. Costello had been keeping unseemly hours and that she frequented the streets with different men. The accused girl denied this allegation and produced testimony to prove her contention. Judge Samuels was not satisfied with the testimony given him last week and ordered that Mrs. Wright be brought into court to testify for her sister. This she did, and secured the girl's release. Mrs Costello was found not guilty by the court.

SHARP TALK AT MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE

Director Is Anxious to Resign His Position.

When Craigie Sharp inquired last night at the Merchants Exchange directors meeting if the committee or school houses had any report to make Chairman C J Downey of that committee flew up into the air and wanted to resign He said

"I am a very busy man and don t like to act on a committee and be often criticized The committee has not been officially recognized by the Board of Education and I should like to have Mr Sharp appointed in my place

"I haven t criticized Mr Downey said Sharp but there ought to be a watchful eye on the doings of the school department I am glad the chairman has reported the fact that his committee has not been officially recognized by the school board

That board has let a contract to tear down the Market street school building and give the materials to the contractors for doing the work It we don't look out there will be graft in this city as well as in San Francisco

The directors took no action and Mr Downey did not resign

OBSTRUCT WALKS

The obstructing of sidewalks on San Pablo avenue and Broadway by the to patrons waiting for transfer to shows was brought up in the Merchants Exchange directors meeting last night by D Cowley who stated that the police should be called on to clear passage way and that the pedestrian public ought not to be compelled to walk in the streets

President Williams and Secretary Walker were appointed to call the annoyance to the attention of the municipal authorities and ask to have the sidewalks kept open for the use of those who wish to promenade long there

Director George Hoffman called the attention of the Merchants Exchange last night to the inadequate pressure in the gas company's pipes early in the evenings He said that many store keepers are forced to use coal oil lamps to light their stores

Another member said that in East Oakland the gas is of such low pressure that the lights sometimes go out there by endangering the lives of persons from subsequent inflow of gas into houses where the gas cocks may be turned on

PRESSURE OF GAS TOO LOW IS CHARGED

Director Briare thought the manager of the gas company realizes the situation and would explain if asked and remedy as soon as possible

Director D Crowley said the trouble was that the consumption of gas has enormously increased and the use of oil for gas making is filling up the pipes with tar He thought a better quality of gas ought to be made or the pipes will all have to be filled up

Directors Walker Hoffman and Crowley were appointed a committee to confer with the gas company managers

THE RAILROAD IS CALLED TO ACCOUNT

Inability to Buy a Southern Pacific Ticket.

and Harbors Congress the Exchange directors will request Senator George C Perkins and Congressman J R Knowland to represent them

The impossibility of purchasing a Southern Pacific Railway ticket for fare to Oakland from Santa Rosa was called to the attention of the directors of the Merchant s Exchange last evening by Secretary Walker who said that a prominent citizen had spoken of the matter to him

Director Davidson said that train employes when trains arrive at the Sixteenth street station do not call out Oakland but only say Sixteenth street station which does not enlighten strangers to the fact that the train has reached this city

An instance which recently occurred was cited in illustration of the harm this practice is likely to occasion A Mrs Masters from a San Joaquin valley town who was to join her baby in this city went on to San Francisco not knowing that Sixteenth street station was where she should have left the train She was later found almost starved in San Francisco and is now in a hospital and her child is in a precarious condition for lack of care

Director Elben told of an old lady from the east who was to have landed in Oakland from the train but crossed to San Francisco There she inquired of a hackman how to reach Oakland He took her in his hack and brought her back on the boat and to Mr Elben s house at a cost of $7

Director Briare said the incoming overland trains do not halt long enough at Sixteenth street station to permit passengers from the east to disembark and many have to go to the mole and return via Seventh street

Directors Alper Briare and Walker were appointed to take the complaints up with Superintendent W S Palmer of the Southern Pacific Company

SANTA FE'S FORCES TO BATTLE FOR BELT LINE

The Success of Its Efforts Will Mean Competition on the Oakland Water Front.

The following dispatch appeared in the San Francisco Call, in the issue of November 21

OAKLAND, Nov. 21—Though not yet in the open, the Santa Fe Railway system has begun a campaign for freight business in the bay cities that has brought on one of the biggest railroad battles witnessed in many years

Behind the new belt railway project which dissatisfied manufacturers of East Oakland inaugurated stands the Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe, ready to fight it out with the Harriman people for an opportunity to meet the Southern Pacific Company on a common battle ground for business

Should the Santa Fe win the contest the Southern Pacific will find a parallel competition for freight along the entire water front of Oakland, a condition the Southern Pacific people do not propose shall be realized without a struggle to a finish

It is this situation, known definitely to the big railway interests, that explains why the Southern Pacific is fighting every inch of the way in its efforts to prevent the City Council and the Board of Supervisors from granting the franchises for which the new Union Belt Line Railway of Oakland has applied Should the franchises be granted the Santa Fe will build the belt road and will gain a connection along the harbor shores that will be of great advantage to that road in the struggle for freight It is much more far-reaching than appears at first sight

CAR BARGE SERVICE.

The Santa Fe purposes, if the belt line is built as an open track proposition to establish its car barge transfer service in connection with the belt road and handle freight along the entire harbor front, a section of the city now controlled by the Southern Pacific Not a car from any railroad in the United States can be hauled to any factory warehouse or other place of business on Oakland s water front unless it shall run over Southern Pacific tracks There is no evidence that the Santa Fe has ever been able to move its freight farther into Oakland than its Fortieth street terminal thus necessitating a long team haul by merchants or others downtown To offset the great advantage the Harriman monopoly has held for years the Santa Fe has developed plans fraught with much important prospective results to the city

The Santa Fe has taken advantage of the situation in East Oakland developed by the refusal of the Southern Pacific Company to permit the open use of the industrial tracks for which the company recently applied to the City Council and the Board of Supervisors for a franchise When the original applications were made they had the backing of some of the manufacturers in the district It was understood that the tracks, which were to be only spurs from the main line at Fruitvale would be open to such lines as the consignees might select

CONSIDERS BELT LINE.

Examination of the situation disclosed however, that the so-called 'industrial tracks if laid would establish a belt road through the new manufacturing center and would effectually close that district to any other railway except the Southern Pacific Company Then the light that dawned upon some of the heaviest shippers resulted in a decision to block the Southern Pacific company, which refused to agree to a franchise clause that should leave the tracks "open." This refusal was met promptly. Millions of invested capital was organized. The manufacturers decided to fight to the end what appeared to be an attempt to seize the remaining water front of the city that was not under the control of the Harriman interests.

To this end a railway corporation, the Union Belt Line Railway of Oakland, was incorporated and applications for franchises were filed over the same route as that selected by the Southern Pacific Company. The difference was that the new corporation put an "open track" clause in its franchise and guaranteed that the line should be free to any railroad that desired to haul freight over it.

The Belt Line people, headed by George D Gray, the lumber and shipping man, W. J Casey of the Union Gas Engine Company, John R. Hodge, J A. Landsberger, General Oscar F Long of the Pacific Steel and Wire Company, James S. Hawkins of the Standard Gas Engine Company, I. H. P Whitelaw, the marine wrecking firm, and other big firms, planned a line at the outset that should feed their plants alone and extending from Fruitvale avenue to Twenty-second avenue.

MENTIONS THE SANTA FE.

R. M Fitzgerald in his first appearance before the City Council declared that the new company had assurances that the belt line would be built, and, he mentioned, among others, the Santa Fe among the systems that might constuct it on the terms demanded by the promoters Since the fight warmed up there have been numerous conferences between the Oakland manufacturers and the Santa officials. The matter was presented to President Ripley on his tour last week, and, it is understood, was indorsed by him

As a result of these conferences the original scheme has been amplified Now the Union Belt Line Railway purposes to extend the road along the harbor shores to the north arm of the estuary and this has been indicated by Fitzgerald s action last night in making application for a franchise to that point from Twenty-second avenue west Further, it is said that negotiations are in progress with the California Development Company, which controls large dock and warehouse facilities at Fallon street and the harbor front, to continue the belt road through that property and as far as Harrison street west.

And the Santa Fe will construct the road By use of its big freight car transfer barges the Santa Fe will be able to handle freight on a parallel line with the Southern Pacific in this new territory, the belt line being maintained for the benefit of all railways

The Santa Fe car barge service from Point Richmond to the San Francisco harbor front was installed several years ago and has been successfully operated Railway men who are watching the developments in Oakland declare that its extension along the Oakland harbor front in connection with a belt line service is a feasible and practical project.

The applications before the City Council by the Southern Pacific Company have been sent from committee of the whole without recommendation

The Union Belt Railway s new application has been laid over for a week

Oakland, Wednesday, 21 Nov., 1906.

War Department's General Order Explains Discharge of Negro Troops.

WASHINGTON Nov 21—The war department issued the following statement today concerning the negro troops ordered dismissed at Fort Reno

In the matter of the order discharging the enlisted men of three companies of the Twenty fifth Infantry issued by the President a plan was presented to the Secretary of War by a number of persons of standing asking for a re-hearing by the President on the ground on which the action was taken The secretary telegraphed the President of the application and delayed the proceedings of the discharge until the President could indicate his wishes The secretary was meantime called out of town No answer was received from the President The secretary on his return did not feel justified in further delay the plan for the order of discharge especially in view that the fact that the secretary then learned that the President had full and exhaustive ... ... the argument that the order of the persons who now applied for a rehearing Accordingly the secretary directed yesterday (Tuesday) that the proceedings for discharge be continued without delay

Later in the day Secretary Taft received a dispatch from President Roosevelt and issued the following additional statement

A telegram was received from the President at 11 o clock today after the previous statement was given out at the War Department in which he declines to suspend the discharge unless there are new facts of such importance as to warrant cabling him He states that the action was taken after due deliberation and that the only matter to which he can pay heed is the presentation of facts showing the official reports to be in whole or in part untrue or clearly exculpating some individual If any such facts later appear he can act as he deems advisable but thus far nothing has been introduced to warrant the suspension of the order and he directs that it be executed

Secretary Taft says that immediate steps will be taken to recruit colored soldiers to replace the men discharged Members of the three companies who were on a furlough at the time of the Brownsville affair and three members who are to be tried by courtmartial will not be mustered out

It was authoritatively stated today that the matter of the dismissal of the troops has not been brought to the attention of the President by the White House officials since he left Washington more than ten days ago None of the protests which have been filed against the carrying out of action have been received at the White House, but have gone to the War Department

MODERN WOMAN IS WALKING BONFIRE

LONDON Nov 21—The modern woman is a walking bonfire only waiting for a match or light to come anywhere in her immediate neighborhood to burst in to flame

The above sentence is from a letter to the press from a leading physician who asks for reasons of professional etiquette that his name may not be quoted

In spite of the various warnings which have been issued from time to time he continues women still persist in decking themselves with celluloid ornaments and this with the full knowledge that the heat thrown out from a fireplace may result in the horrible fate of death by burning

A reporter who has collected information on the subject has learned that the crisis is by no means exaggerated

The society woman who goes out calling fastens her hair with celluloid hair pins which are made in a variety of colors to match each gown She adds a couple of jeweled celluloid side combs and a celluloid side set with paste

The straw or felt hat is trimmed with bunches of celluloid grape currants or cherries and stabbed by a pair of celluloid headed hatpins

She wears a pair of celluloid rings for her ears in a delicate shade of turquoise blue with a necklet of celluloid beads to match

A celluloid buckle set with jewels or hand painted clasps for waistband Celluloid buttons fasten her gloves A celluloid holder raises her dress in muddy weather

The dancing girl is in the same predicament Celluloid sequins cover her gown with glittering embroideries Wreaths of celluloid fruits deck her hair ... celluloid camels is just ned beside Marguerite plait

LEADING SPECIALIST FOR WOMEN.

Ladies, if you are suffering from any ailment peculiar to your sex, worried about your condition and need help, consult this widely known specialist for the following plausible reasons:

1—He is a competent, well-trained physician and surgeon, and truly the only regularly graduated specialist for women advertising.

2—With qualifications recognized by the highest medical authority, and well-known as a consulting gynaecologist and obstetrician with his painless and harmless methods known to no physician but himself. He is able to give relief at once, without disappointment, needless drugs, operations or detention from your occupation.

3—His broad experience in the exclusive treatment of women; his 19 years of unlimited success with the most obscure and obstinate cases where all others have failed; his entire new specially constructed building, equipped with the latest inventions and modern appliances essential for the proper investigation and intelligent treatment of his patients, makes him the safest and surest man to consult when you need help.

Throw aside prejudice. The best is always the cheapest. Why suffer pain and anxiety by consulting quacks, self-styled specialists and those of small experience, when you may have the advice of a man rich in experience and eminent in the profession, absolutely free of charge.

His fees are moderate and you may safely intrust your case in his care, and be assured of prompt and happy results.

BIG TALK FEST COMMENCES

Kansas City is Now the Storm Center for Favorite Sons and Noted Orators.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 21.—At the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, which is meeting here in annual session, this was to be a day of speeches, according to the pre-arranged program. Many additional delegates, delayed in reaching the city yesterday by storms north, east and west, arrived during the night and today.

The topics up for consideration today included the improvement of waterways and trade relations with the South American countries, reclamation of submerged lands, public drainage, matters of insurance control, naval construction and Alaska.

It was intended to give the Latin-American diplomats, who were crowded out of last night's program, a chance to speak and to hear from Victor A. Alderson, president of the Colorado School of Mines, who failed to reach Kansas City yesterday and take his place on the program.

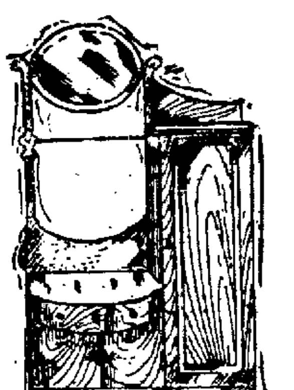

The address of the day was delivered by Representative J. E. Randell of Lake Providence, La., on "The Improvement of Navigable Waterways."

BELL EULOGIZES CONGRESSMAN

VALLEJO, Nov. 21.—Hon. T. A. Bell, who was recently defeated for Governor, was tendered a banquet in this city last evening by a number of his personal friends, members of both parties. The affar was held in the Elks' clubrooms banquet hall and was one of the most elaborate in the history of gastronomic festivals in this city. Ex-Mayor P. B. Lynch presided and Captain Lucien Young, M. Kemper and others made addresses. Mr. Bell made a speech that was received with prolonged cheers. He paid a high tribute to Congressman Knowland, whom he stated was the best Republican representative that this district ever had in Washington. This statement was roundly aplauded by Republicans and Democrats alike.

I See

That a thousand tourists, more or less (according to the imaginations of the reporters), are coming into Oakland every day. Presumably, this does not include boxcar tourists. If all of these people came to stay it would augment our population by at least 300,000 a year, and in five years, taking no account of the natural increase by excess of births over deaths, Oakland would be a city of nearly 2,000,000 souls, plus incorporated bodies. Well, I never had any taste for statistics. My taste runs in the direction of hot drinks, the kind that cheer without calling for a tiger. Lehnhardt's kind, for example.

Great Bend Consolidated Mining Company

Treasury Offering at 30 Cts. per Share

We announce the opening of the subscription books of the Great Bend Consolidated Mining Company, which has been incorporated with a capitalization of 1,250,000 shares, of the par value of $1.00 each, full paid and non-assessable. Four hundred thousand shares are in the treasury. Subscription price for treasury shares is 30 cents.

Within a radius of three-quarters of a mile, at the northern end of the Goldfield mining district, there have been opened up, within the past ninety days, half a dozen great ore bodies, two of which have enhanced the value of the stocks of the companies operating them from 300 per cent to 1,000 per cent. These are the Goldfield Great Bend Mining Company and the Goldfield Daisy Mining Company. Within the past ninety days Great Bend shares have risen in value from 40 cents to around $1.50, and Daisy has advanced from 25 cents to around $3.00 per share.

Adjoining the Great Bend is situated the ground of the Great Bend Consolidated Mining Company, which owns five claims, or in the neighborhood of 100 acres. This ground up to recently was knwon as the Knickerbocker-Griswold group, having been originally located by two pioneers of the Goldfield mining district. As yet the ground is undeveloped. It is only a prospect. But it is situated so close to the Great Bend, and after an exhaustive examination by competent mining engineers has been pronounced so likely a producer of "high grade," that its value as a prospect is great and the opportunities for investors who purchase treasury stock at this time are enormous.

Mr. John D. Campbell, the noted consulting engineer, declares that, in his opinion, a vein system parallel to that of the Great Bend and Daisy will be opened up on Great Bend Consolidated ground within a short period. Boulders of quartz, indicating the presence of large ore bodies, are in evidence on all five claims of the Great Bend Consolidated, and it appears only a matter of a short period of development work to open up a great mine. The ground of the Great Bend Consolidated occupies the same relative position to the Great Bend and to the Daisy as does the Silver Pick of Goldfield to the Jumbo and Mohawk.

Hoisting apparatus has been ordered by telegraph, and half a dozen miners have been put to work to thoroughly prospect the ground of the Great Bend Consolidated Mining Company. Within ten days the work of sinking the main shaft will have commenced, and within thirty days we expect to have some sensational news for subscribers to the treasury stock.

The officers of the company are: President, Governor John Sparks of Nevada; Vice-President, John D. Campbell, mine operator and consulting engineer; Treasurer, L. M. Sullivan, president of the Sullivan Trust Company; Secretary, Peter Grant, Treasurer of the Sullivan Trust Company; Counsel, George D. Pyne, Attorney at Law.

In view of the over-subscription of our two other recent Goldfield promotions, namely, the Lou Dillon Goldfield Mining Company, promoted at 30 cents a share, now listed and selling around 48 cents, and the Silver Pick Extension Mining Company, promoted at 30 cents a share, and now on the eve of listing, selling on the curb in Goldfield and San Francisco around 37 cents, it will be the part of wisdom for our friends to immediately telegraph their reservations. Otherwise it is more than likely that they will be disappointed, and be unable to obtain an allotment.

Send for My Market Letter.

I only returned from Goldfield one week ago, and leave for there again Saturday, November 10. There are some new combinations going through which I want to know about. There are also reports of new strikes which I want to see for myself and know what truth there is in the stories they are sending out. In my letter which goes out this week, I am going to give you some facts and will also have something to say about brokers who never visit the mines they are dealing in. You may get some good advice on this. While in Goldfield early next week, I will wire my office anything new that I discover and this information will be sent out from the office in the form of a private letter. If your name is on the list you will get one. Send your name and address. The letter will cost you nothing, and may put you in the way of making a lot of money.

GREAT REVIVAL IN MANHATTAN; BULLFROG MINES MAY MERGE

Recent Strikes in a Score of Mines.

Manhattan, the center of the excitement in Nevada a year ago, is reviving rapidly after a period of depression following the San Francisco disaster. This camp, which promises to be one of the great producers of Nevada, was hard hit by the San Francisco fire. Its properties were largely backed by San Francisco capital, and when the city was laid in ruins mining operations in Manhattan suffered a slump. Development work has progressed steadily on a number of properties, and the discovery of good ore at depths of 200 feet goes far to prove the permanency of the veins. The indications are that Manhattan will again be the center of active operations in the near future.

GIANT IN GOOD ORE.

At the Manhattan Giant sinking was resumed last week. The shaft is now about ninety feet deep and will be continued to 175 feet before drifting will begin. The ledge is in the neighborhood of fourteen feet wide and will average about $20 per ton in gold. There are several streaks which carry high-grade values, one of which occurs on the roof of the drift from the fifty-foot level, and averages from ten to eighteen inches in width.

WORK ON THE MOTHER LODE.

Work is progressing favorably on the Manhattan Mother Lode Mining Company, adjoining the Manhattan Consolidated. The tunnel is in the hill 180 feet, and should soon strike the large vein, which crops on the surface and returns values as high as $40 per ton in gold. It is estimated that this vein should be encountered within the next fifty feet.

ANOTHER SHAFT IN NEMO.

Arrangements have been made to sink another 100 feet on the Nemo. The shaft at the present time is down 100 feet, at which place it was tapped by the tunnel. Work of continuing the shaft will be started at once and pushed vigorously. Drifts and crosscuts will be run from the 200-foot level and ore bodies blocked out.

A three-foot ledge has been uncovrede in the Nemo shaft at a depth of 110 feet, or about fifteen feet from the tunnel level.

The shaft on the Monday of the Original Manhattan has reached considerable depth, and the ledge has widened perceptibly, holding its values strong. The main ore body is nearly twenty feet in width and pans free gold of a mill grade the entire distance. The ore on the Negrook is lead and silver. It carries values up to $75 per ton.

High-grade milling ore is rapidly coming in on the big vein on which drift No. 3 is being run on the Georgey group of the Manhattan Nevada Gold Mines Company. This vein has been steadily improving since it was struck at a distance of 210 feet in the tunnel, until today it pans well in free gold and is of a good milling grade. No less than a dozen veins of high-grade milling ore have been opened on the surface of the Georgey group, and when these veins are cut at depth by the tunnel, the Manhattan Nevada Gold Mines Company will have one of the biggest mining propositions in the State.

RICH ORE IN MANHATTAN CON.

Arthur Philbrick, who recently visited the workings of the Manhattan Con., said:

"The crosscut is in the ore body eighteen feet and the hanging wall had not been encountered. The ore, every speck of it, is high-grade milling and proves the Consolidated one of the greatest mines in the country. As soon as the hanging wall is reached, it is proposed to drift on the ore body.

"Up in the tunnel level, 160 feet above the crosscut, ten feet of the ore on the hanging-wall side averaged $86 per ton. These returns at least were received from a shipment of five tons sent to Denver for treatment. It is believed that the ore at the present depth will prove much richer than that above."

Superintendent Dan O'Brien of Belmont says that sinking both shafts is progressing steadily with improved and improving appearances. In both places the ledge is strong, carrying fair values in the yellow metal, with indications very favorable for the opening up of good ore bodies at further depth.

From the Cinnabar section comes news of a new strike made on the Schultz property, which is being rapidly developed by Mr. Schultz in person and who is rated as a millionaire. This property is located between Manhattan and Round Mountain.

RICH STRIKE AT CENTRAL.

Frank P. Davis of Manhattan passed through Tonopah this morning, says the Tonopah Sun. He expressed himself freely on conditions at Manhattan, and stated that, while all signs of the first boom have been worn off at the camp, things in general are down to a solid business basis. He reports that a strike has been made at Central, which is one of the big strikes of the district. The find was made at a depth of sixty-five feet, and the ledge is twenty feet wide, average assays being $51 to the ton.

TONOPAH WILL BE MADE A GREAT MINING CENTER

"Before the snow falls," said Engineer Wolfe of the Tonopah Exploration Company yesterday, "we hope to have the pipe on the ground for the Manhattan mining district water works. the ditching work is well under way. A quantity of pipe has been ordered and is on the way to Austin.

"There are great things in store for the Manhattan district. The Tonopah Exploration Company will establish a water system that will bring into the district 500,000 gallons per day of water from mountain streams. The company will construct a power plant and custom mill for Manhattan. The mill will have a capacity sufficient to handle 125 tons a day. A sampler will treat 125 tons every eight hours, or 375 tons a day."

Speaking of other phases of the present situation at Manhattan, Mr. Wolfe said that leasers are working again, which he considers a strong sign of confidence on the part of the men on the ground, who have an opportunity to judge of what is there.

The Tonopah Exploration Company has tested what is reasonably supposed to be representative ore and is satisfied that the expense to be assumed on account of the Manhattan camp is justified by the showing resulting from the tests.

The mineral ground about Manhattan that has been proved includes about twelve square miles. It is about eight miles long and one and one half wide. The formation has its own characteristics. In one part the values lie in shales in the presence of silicious dikes. "Manhattan is a great medium-grade milling ore region," said Wolfe. "All the Tonopah mining men are interested financially in the Manhattan district."

OPENING MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Opening dealings in stocks were in moderate volume and the resulting price fluctuations were narrow, with small declines predominating. Anaconda receded 2¼, General Electric 1⅝ and Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis 1.

St. Paul was driven a point under yesterday's closing and Reading and Union Pacific a half point. Prices were somewhat better at 11 o'clock and some of the minor stocks were showing strength. Consolidated Gas rose 5, Pacific Mail 2, Northwestern 1¾ and Rock Island preferred, Colorado Fuel and Smelting 1. St. Paul preferred gave way 2 and Federal Mining lost 4.

Call money, after touching 10 per cent, fell back and stocks rose. Industrials were prominent in the advances. Delaware & Hudson gained 2¾, Reading 1⅝, Pacific Mail 3¼ and Colorado Fuel 2⅛.

Prices receded again before noon.

Bonds were irregular.

The tendency of prices became irregularly upward again shortly after 12 o'clock in sympathy with the marking up of Reading to a new high level. Union Pacific hardened 1. St. Paul preferred continued to lose ground and showed a loss of 5 points.

Prices continued to rise in spots, but the movement was not comprehensive and was interrupted by setbacks. Gains were made in Great Northern preferred of 3, Keokuk and Des Moines 2, Canadian Pacific and Rock Island preferred, Northern Pacific and Union Bag Stock and Tennessee Coal 1⅝ to 1¾.

The market closed dull and irregular. The spurt in the Hill stocks and Canadian Pacific did not more than hold the general list against realizing sales and prices ultimately gave way. St. Paul yielded again to a point below last night. The rise in Great Northern preferred had reached 5¼, Canadian Pacific 2¼, Northern Pacific 2⅛ and Rock Island, Iowa Central, Amalgamated Copper about a point. Chicago & Alton declined 1¼.

Great Activity in the Southern District.

It is proposed by the large stockholders of the Mayflower and Starlight mining companies to consolidate the properties of the two companies. Those interested say that the statement that the Bullfrog Croesus would be in the consolidation is incorrect.

The crosscut from the 70-foot level of the Skookum shaft is in about 18 feet. The formation here is a blue lime, in which lead ore appears occasionally. This is a good indication. The equipment of the mine will soon be first-class.

The crosscut from the 100-foot level at the Gold Bar South Extension is cutting into the ledge at the 150-foot point. Good values appearing in the face.

ON THE RHYOLITE TOWNSITE.

In the shaft of the Rhyolite Townsite, at 150 feet, the formation is getting solid. The shaft will be sunk to 200 feet and then crosscutting will be started for the ledge, which, it is estimated, will be reached in thirty-feet. A gasoline hoist has just been installed at the Townsite.

The Zeigler Bullfrog is a new corporation and little work has been done thus far on the company's property, although the locations are among the oldest in the district. Surface assays run as high as $37 per ton in gold. Nineteen assays averaged $5.54 in gold per ton on the surface. One particular lead has been opened up showing a width of eight feet.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHINA.

Development continues steadily on the China Neveda, and a new shaft is being sunk on the Hongkong claim. Surface assays across 100 feet of the vein run $4.20 in gold per ton. Depth, it is thought, will prove up much greater values. At present the shaft has attained a depth of twelve feet, the whole bottom being in quartz.

Judge Ezra Norris, J. R. Bryan and F. H. Stickney, who own the Horseshoe group, a short distance southeast of the Mayflower, have let a contract for sixty feet of tunneling. The tunnel is now in sixty feet, and is expected to tap the Mayflower ledge at the 150-foot point. There are twelve claims in the group.

MANGANESE BEGINS WORK.

Work has been started on the Manganese Bullfrog, owned by Bevis & Cushman. A shaft is being sunk on the lead. The property adjoins the Mayflower, and has practically the same surface indications, it is stated. Ten dollar values in gold and silver have been obtained from the outcrop.

The shaft at the Denver Annex is down fifty feet and all in ore. The property is said to be showing up exceptionally well under development.

The shaft of the Swan Hilda is down 100 feet and a drift has been started from this level. The management states that the vein is showing steady improvement.

Hoisting machinery is being installed at the Bullfrog Allimance and will be in operation in a few days. The shaft is down 135 feet, with good stringers appearing in the bottom.

The crosscut from the 100 at the Gold Bar South Extension cut a strong ledge carrying good values at the 115-foot point. The material is quartz, mixed with talc and manganese and promises excellent returns.

GOLD COIN HAS ORE.

The Bullfrog Gold Coin has struck ore in an open cut on its Coin No. 1 and No. 2 claims. An assay recently made gave a return of $22 to the ton from ore very similar in character. General Manager Thatcher states, to that found at the Mayflower. Three and a half feet of the material have been uncovered and the width of the ledge has not yet been proved.

Sinking is being continued at the Black Spra with two shifts. Shaft No. 1 is down 132 feet and the drift from the 100-foot level south on the vein is being pushed ahead. The crosscut west from the 100 is being further extended and the material being penetrated is constantly improving in character. If the ground in the shaft continues reasonably good it is the purpose to reach the 200-foot point by the 10th of next month.—Bullfrog Miner.

HOT CREEK HAS GOOD OUTLOOK.

E. L. Fletcher returned a few days ago from a trip to Hot Creek. He says the outlook in that district is exceptionally good. There are about twenty-five men working for wages, while there are many prospectors scattered about the district.

On the Kansas City group there is a shaft 138 feet, all in ore at the bottom. The value of the ore is from $75 to $350 a ton.

At Morey, eighteen miles north of Hot Creek, rich ore is being taken out and shipped to Eureka.

meda, and she has two small children. She asserts that Williams is her husband and that he has committed bigamy by marrying Miss Harriet Frances Minnaker, a pretty young woman whose home is in Santa Clara. This charge is now under investigation, and in the event that Mrs. Williams proves her marriage to Williams, he will have to face a charge of bigamy, as he admits being married to Miss Minnaker.

Williams eloped with Miss Minnaker and they went to Redwood City, where they were married November 12. The young couple had been keeping company for about seven months and Williams attentions to their daughter was opposed by Mr. and Mrs. Minnaker. Love had its way, however, and the two planned an elopement, going from Santa Clara to Redwood City. Miss Minnaker was 16 years of age and Williams 25 years old.

Minnaker, the father of the young girl, learned that the couple were in Oakland and came here with his wife last night.

The father, who is a constable in Santa Clara, heard of the claims of Mrs. Roba Williams, and decided to have the accusation against his son-in-law investigated.

ARRESTED BY FATHER.

Upon his arrival in this city he went to where his daughter and son-in-law were living, 572 Eighteenth street, and placed Williams under arrest, turning him over to Detective Harry Green, who had accompanied him to the place.

Mrs. Roba Williams appeared in Chief of Police Wilson's office this morning with her two children, one an infant in arms. She met Mr. and Mrs. Minnaker there and conversed concerning the serious charge she had made. She claims that she was married to Williams in Hanford January 2, 1904. Mrs. Williams asserts that her alleged husband resided with her for two years and then deserted her. She has now learned that he has married again without first obtaining a divorce. The enraged wife avers that she can present proof of her marriage when the time comes.

SECOND MRS. WILLIAMS.

The second Mrs. Williams appeared in the chief's office this morning, while the first Mrs. Williams was there with her two children. The young woman swooned and was prevented from falling to the floor by Prosecuting Attorney Ezra Decoto. After recovering her composure she listened to the testimony which will probably make her marriage an illegal one.

Williams, when interviewed by a TRIBUNE reporter this morning, said:

"I have nothing to say for publication."

When questioned, however, he made the statement that he had never been married to Mrs. Roba Williams.

"Are the two children, your children?" was the query.

"Are the two children your chilswered Williams

Continuing, he said: "I had been courting Miss Minnaker for about seven months. We went to Redwood City and were married. I have been employed by the Telephone company, but have not lived in Alameda for about a year. That is all I have to say."

MAYOR WILL HAVE FENCE REMOVED

In order to prevent a loss of life or accidents, Mayor Mott is to make an effort to have the fence surrounding the Baptist church at Jones street and Telegraph avenue, moved back from its present location.

The Board of Works at its meeting considered many complaints concerning the fence this morning, and Mayor Mott resolved himself into a committee of one to have the obstruction, which is said to be a menace to the lives of passing pedestrians, removed.

The fence was erected about the church which was damaged by the earthquake to remain during its reconstruction. The fence stands within a few feet of the car tracks.

DIPLOMACY OF NATIONS IS THEME OF SENATOR PERKINS

UNITED STATES SENATOR PERKINS, who addressed the Men's League last evening.

Interesting Address Is Feature of Annual Meeting of Men's League of the Presbyterian Church.

Senator George C. Perkins addressed the Men's League of the First Presbyterian church last evening It was the occasion of their annual meeting, and officers for the ensuing year were elected

The league assembled in the brigade hall of the church at 6 30 last evening and partook of a supper prepared by the ladies of the church. The twelve long tables were well filled with the members After the dishes were laid aside, the gathering was entertained by the church quartet, composed of Mrs Z R Jenkins, Miss Waterman, J. F. Veasto and Clement Rollins. They also rendered several solos.

After a violin selection by the Todd children, Judge Ogden, president of the league, made a short retiring address, telling of the work of the club and its building up of good citizenship. The secretary-treasurers report showed the league to be in good standing

D Edward Collins and Bradford Webster were unanimously elected president and vice-president respectively. M M. Hoffman was declared secretary by the chair. The program was continued with musical selections, then Judge Ogden arose, and with a few well spoken remarks, introduced the speaker of the evening, Senator George C Perkins The judge dealt on the proud resources of Oakland, but, best of all, we could be proud of the clean and non-corrupt life of Senator Perkins, who has been one of California's representatives in the upper house of Congress for thirteen years, and absent only three days; then because of sickness.

IS WARMLY GREETED.

Senator Perkins was heartily received and made a brief address to the league about the diplomacy and foreign relations between the United States and other countries. He was very appreciative in his thanks to the Men's Club, and was pleased with their good work in uplifting the community and making clean citizenship.

His first attention was called to the relations with foreign lands, when the effort was made to build a canal at Panama. Because of the Clayton-Bullwork treaty in 1852 the United States must work jointly with Great Britain in order to construct this waterway across the isthmus. A new committee was appointed by the late Secretary of State Hay and a treaty was made with other countries and the Central American States to proceed with the ditch. It was through this work that Senator Perkins became acquainted with diplomacy and foreign relations During his career in the Senate he has always manifested a great interest in the dealings with the United States and foreign lands. Senator Perkins told of the powers and duties of foreign ministers and embassies Some very amusing facts regarding the domestic living of our ministers abroad were told The salary of Whitelaw Reid, the minister to the court of England is $17,500 per year, and he pays $40,000 per annum for the rent of his apartments at St. James. He said this was similar to the southern senator whose salary was $5000. He paid for his residence at Washington $6000 per year He expected to borrow the $1000 difference and stand off his other creditors.

The United States is the only country that does not own, in foreign countries, the homes of their ministers. These must be provided by the man himself out of his salary, which ranges from $17,500 to as low as $2000 per year. The office of a diplomat makes him exempt from laws of the land he resides in. When a representative of a foreign country comes to the United States his baggage, household and all other effects are passed, and the customs officers must not hold him up for duties or attempt to examine the diplomat s belongings Should he commit any crime, murder or infringe on any law, he is not arrested, but is given passport to his own country, and tried before a court provided for by international treaty.

On one occasion an attache of the British embassy at Washington, was automobiling in Massachusetts. In passing through a town he exceeded the speed limit. A constable stopped the car and took King Edward's representative before the local justice of the peace He was fined for the fast ride and severely reprimanded. As soon as the authorities at the Capitol were informed of the affair, orders were given to refund the fine to the Britisher and the Secretary of State read the international law to the Bay State justice of the peace in a manner that he would not be slow to forget

IMPORTANCE OF DUTIES.

The Senator, in closing his remarks on the diplomacy with the United States and other countries, told of the importance of these ministers and their duties to keep the nations of the world in touch with each other, a method that makes an existence of neutrality between the powers. A few words were spoken about the navy of the United States, its efficient equipment of which the Senator is in favor of maintaining. The standing army, though only about 60,000 enrolled, does not say that Uncle Sam is scarce of soldiers in time of trouble. He told of how the call of troops was responded to when President Lincoln asked for them in the Civil war, and again for the Spanish war. The spirit is immediately taken up and the American will take to arms at the call of his President.

After other remarks Senator Perkins thanked the club and expressed a desire to again address the meeting.

Judge Ogden, the retiring president of the League, thanked the Senator for his remarks and called upon the new president, D. Edward Collins, his friend from boyhood days.

Mr. Collins in a few words spoke with appreciation for the address of the evening. In his plans for the future of the Men's League of the First Presbyterian church, President Collins asked them to continue their united work that will render results and be a benefit to the city of Oakland.

The church quartet sang another song and the meeting adjourned. Many friends of the Senator were pleased to grasp the speaker by the hand and have a few pleasant words as he passed out.

NOTHING SLOW ABOUT DILLON

George Has Only Seen Eighteen Summers, but Understands Frenzied Finance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—George Dillon, eighteen years old, an $6 a week clerk in the employ of the Fruit & Produce Trade Association, was arrested and arraigned in the Tombs police court yesterday. Dillon waived examination and was held in $2500 bonds. The complainant against Dillon was Ward W. Smith, manager for the Fruit & Produce Trade Association, and also manager for the American Copper & Gold Company.

According to Assistant District Attorney Krotel, Dillon used letter heads of the association to induce its customers to invest in the Eastern Union Trust Company at $100 a share. Dillon, he says, signed himself assistant secretary of the fruit and produce concern, but also in other letters signed the name of C. H. Adams, president of the Eastern Union Trust Company. Mr. Krotel said he had evidence showing that Dillon had received more than $10,000 from unsuspecting customers.

On the following day he deserted his bride and the rooming house as well.

He was located a few days ago at the Minnequa steel works and was placed under arrest on the charge of beating a board bill.

Mrs. Hammer at the trial testified that McNeal had promised to pay a back board bill contracted by the bride prior to her marriage, amounting to $50 This the defendant denied, and according to the law, he is not held liable for this bill.

McNeal testified that he had offered to pay Mrs. Hammer the board bill for himself and wife for the two days he had been in the house, but his offer had been refused. After hearing the testimony
